WHILE FRESH BLOW BEING PREPARED BY HAIG'S MEN PETAIN FOILS THE ENEMY

London Reports Artillery Activity Near Coast and on Ypres Battlefield; Germans Attacked on Both Sides of Meuse; Were Beaten Off

London, Oct. 1.—While Flanders apparently is witnessing the preparation of another offensive stroke by Field-Marshal Haig, which the Germans are trying to anticipate by counter-attacks and retaliatory fire, the German Crown Prince's army is again attempting to harass the French in the Verdun region. German troops delivered attacks last night both east and west of the Meuse in the Verdun sector, where the artillery fire has been intense for several days past. The blows were repulsed by the French defenders, Paris announces. After their three futile attempts yesterday to drive the British back from the high ground they occupy on both sides of the Ypres-Menin road in Flanders, the Germans contented themselves with keeping up a heavy artillery fire during the night.

London, Oct. 1.—"The enemy's artillery showed pronounced activity in the night time in the Neuport sector and east and north of Ypres," says an official report issued here to-day. "Otherwise there is nothing to report."

French Report.
Paris, Oct. 1.—German troops attacked last night on the Verdun front on both sides of the Meuse River. The War Office announced this afternoon that they were repulsed. Violent artillery fighting is in progress in the Verdun sector.

WORK ON SHIPS IN CALIFORNIA RESUMED

30,000 Iron Workers and Other Mechanics Return to Their Labor

San Francisco, Oct. 1.—After having been on strike since Monday, September 17, 30,000 iron workers and other mechanics returned to work to-day in 290 shops in San Francisco and the Bay cities. Government shipping contracts to the extent of $150,000,000, held by the strike, will now be rushed to completion, according to declarations on both sides.

At the Union Iron Works, where $100,000,000 worth of shipping is being turned out by the Government, work was resumed on six of the latest type of submarines. The municipal steam and electric trains operating between the residence and industrial districts were resumed after suspending operation during the strike. These trains take the place of United Railroads trolley lines, whose service is hampered by a strike of platform men.

Substantial Increase.
The men returned under a tentative agreement for an increase in wages ranging from 10 to 20 per cent.

The men asked for a fifty per cent. increase. The new agreement was drawn up by the iron trades council, the two organizations of employers and Attorney Gavin McNab, who was appointed a special strike mediator by President Wilson. It was ratified by all of the unions connected with the iron trades council with the exception of the boiler-makers, who protested against the clause, that no open shop should be discriminated against. Last Thursday night this union voted not to return, despite an order issued by the iron trades council.

Attempts to open the shops without the boiler-makers last Friday and Saturday were only partially successful. Yesterday the boiler-makers voted to return "under protest," declaring their union still opposed the open shop rule and the fixing of $6 as a maximum wage by the strike arbiters.

The iron trades council has stated that it expects the Government to submit a permanent wage plan by November 15. Each side is given 30 days after that date either to ratify or reject this plan, the men reserving the right to walk out again if it is not satisfactory.

BRITISH FREIGHTER SENT DOWN LARGE GERMAN SUBMARINE

An Atlantic Port of the United States, Oct. 1.—The sinking of a large German submarine in a battle with a British freighter was reported on the arrival of the steamship here Sunday. The battle occurred 180 miles off the coast of France eight days ago.

The submarine's gunnery was poor, most of her shells going far over the ship. Finally a shot from the British vessel struck its mark fairly and the U-boat disappeared. Officers of the freighter said that the submarine was one of the latest type and her guns were of large calibre.

Another Advance by Russians in Region of Riga Is Reported

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—Russian troops have made another advance in the Riga region, according to a War Office announcement issued here to-day. German posts were pressed back south of the railway in the Spitals farm sector, the Russians advancing between 800 and 1,000 yards.

Important Base in East African Field Occupied by British

London, Oct. 1.—British troops on Saturday occupied Nahungu, an important German supply base 22 miles southwest of Kilwa, in German East Africa, after considerable resistance. The advance in the Lukoleli Valley and that by Belgian troops on Mahenge are continuing steadily.

RUSSIANS TURN EYES TO FLEET FOLLOWING M. KERENSKY'S WORDS

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—Commenting on the statement made by Premier Kerensky in his speech to the democratic congress that a German fleet was menacing Petrograd, the newspapers say every means of repulsing the enemy is at hand, but that it remains to be seen whether the revolution has hampered the fighting power of the Russian fleet.

"It is not the first time that Germany has menaced us from the Baltic," says The Novoe Vremya. "It is vitally important for the enemy to seize some part of the coast as a landing base, but in 1914, 1915 and 1916 our fleet was on the watch and all attempts were unsuccessful. Let us hope the fighting power of our fleet has been strengthened."

ATTEMPT TO WRECK THE MACHINERY OF AMERICAN TRANSPORT

An Atlantic Port of the United States, Oct. 1.—An attempt to wreck the machinery of a United States transport was discovered yesterday when the engines of the ship, which had been undergoing alterations, were started for a trial, according to the commander, who caused the arrest of one of the ship's mechanics pending an investigation.

$50,000,000 MORE TO BRITISH GOVERNMENT FROM UNITED STATES

Washington, Oct. 1.—A further credit of $50,000,000 to Great Britain was extended to-day by the United States Government. This brings the total advanced to Great Britain thus far up to $1,240,000,000 and the total advanced to all the allies up to $2,518,400,000.

Berlin Is Planning to Expel Foreigners From German Empire

Amsterdam, Oct. 1.—The Amsterdam Telegraaf says a bill is being prepared in Berlin authorizing the German Government, in view of the scarcity of foodstuffs, to remove from the country all foreigners not employed in war industries. The bill probably will be enforced within a month.

Stuttgart Received Half Ton of Bombs From French Airmen

Paris, Oct. 1.—French aviators dropped half a ton of projectiles on the city of Stuttgart in reprisal for the bombardment of Bar-le-Duc a few days ago by German airmen, the War Office announced this afternoon.

Stuttgart, capital of the kingdom of Wurttemberg, is a city of nearly 200,000 population, about 100 miles from the French border.

ENEMY RAIDERS GOT VERY HOT RECEPTION

Only Five Got Above London;
One Destroyed; Nine Persons Killed

London, Oct. 1.—Nine persons were killed and 42 injured during the raid made last night by German aeroplanes, it is announced officially. One of the enemy machines was brought down off Dover.

In an early communication Field-Marshal Lord French announced that two groups of enemy machines, followed by others flying singly, crossed the Kent and Essex coast between 6.40 and 8 o'clock last evening. They came toward London. About 10 penetrated the outer defenses, but only four or five got through to London itself. Bombs were dropped in Kent, Essex and London. Slight Mist.

London, Oct. 1.—The London district was raided again last night by German airmen. While there was a bright moon, there also was a slight mist, and the raiders were invisible to persons in the streets, but from the sounds of the anti-aircraft guns in action, the indications were that the raiders were moving over various quarters of the district.

Five in Seven Days.
London, Oct. 1.—The air raid Sunday night, the fifth within seven days, as far as available details show, accomplished nothing important for the enemy. The claim that the new air barrage acts as a powerful deterrent to the raiders seems to have been justified further in the latest attack. An immense number of guns of various calibres were in action. Indeed, it was they and not the invaders who were putting up the show.

Extremely impressive was the terrific din of the guns. The enormous and prolonged volume of gunfire certainly was alarming to civilian ears not accustomed to it. Some of the big, high velocity weapons employed detonated with a deafening crash indistinguishable by the civilians from the roar of bombs. So great was the amount of defensive shell fire that an estimate of a thousand shells discharged for every bomb dropped does not seem extravagant.

It is said several bombs were dropped in Essex and Kent without causing casualties. One raider was driven from London by the guns of the fleet. Southwest of the capital another was seen over the Thames estuary. It was hemmed in by shellfire and struggled for half an hour trying to find an exit from what seemed a triangle of bursting shells. It finally escaped eastward.

A half dozen bombs were dropped in a suburban district without casualties or important damage. One of the bombs narrowly escaped striking a hospital.

Reprisals Urged.
The newspapers, while commending the vigor of the defence, still call for other measures and advocate reprisals on German towns. They insist on this point with great vehemence. The Times contends that it would be absurd to suppose that the problem of successful defence had been found. It points out that the intense gunfire is only a partial deterrent and warns that air warfare is capable of infinite expansion and that new methods will have to be found to combat it.

The Times advocates a great air fleet capable of carrying the war into Germany.

Very Noisy.
London, Oct. 1.—The week-end air raids established a record as the noisiest London has experienced. This was due entirely to the increased number of anti-aircraft guns and the continuity of the firing.

Last night the only unusual incident of the raid was the cheering which was heard from different parts of the metropolis due to the belief that some of the raiders had been brought down.

Public Warned.
The public, which has been looking forward to the darker nights that are approaching for a cessation of the raids, has been warned that although the recent raids occurred on moonlight nights, there is no reason to assume that as more experience is gained they may not be attempted on any night when the atmospheric conditions are favorable. The taking of necessary precautions to provide shelter is urged.

German Shelter.
Berlin, Oct. 1.—German aviators bombed inner London, Margate and Dover last night, according to an official statement issued to-day. All the German machines, it was added, returned unharmed.

THEATRE BROUGHT INTO PROMINENCE AGAIN BY COUP BY BRITISH TROOPS

Ramadiah and Mushaid (Khan Mushaid), in the region of Baghdad, where Gen. Maude's troops carried out their brilliant stroke, are marked on the above map.

ITALIANS GAINED GROUND NEAR EDGE OF BAINSIZZA PLATEAU; A BOLD ASSAULT

Rome, Oct. 1.—In another powerful drive Italian forces captured high ground to the south of Podlaca and southeast of Madoni, in the Isonzo sector. The announcement of this by the War Office also reports the capture of 1,409 prisoners. The text of the report follows: "By a sudden, bold action we improved our positions toward the southeastern edge of the Bainsizza Plateau, capturing some high ground south of Podlaca and southeast of Madoni. We also captured 49 officers and 1,360 men."

"On Friday night and Saturday attempts to dislodge us from the positions we had occupied by Selladidol and the northern slopes of Monte San Gabriele failed completely. Eighty-six prisoners, including six officers were taken."

"On the remainder of the front there was great artillery activity and numerous actions took place. "Air fighting was very brisk on the whole Julian front. Our air squadrons yesterday bombarded depots northeast of Nabresina and last night military works of the fortress of Pola with excellent results. One of our machines has not returned. Two enemy aeroplanes were brought down in aerial combat."

This flanks the Tervova Wood across the Chislova valley, thus opening Monte San Daniele to attack on the north side as well as the Austrian defences east of Monte San Gabriele and between it and Monte San Daniele. The next step will be the occupation of these woods, leading to an attack on San Daniele, the last remaining of the Austrian defences north of the Vipacco valley, through which runs the Gorizia-Trieste road.

The loss of the lower Vipacco valley would mean the flanking of the Carso positions protecting Monte Hermada, the great obstacle on the coast road from Monfalcone to Trieste.

French Authorities Intend Cargo Space to Be Used Properly

Paris, Oct. 1.—President Poincaré has signed a decree providing for the requisitioning of cargo accommodation on all vessels, French, Allied and neutral, for the service of the Government.

HAIG'S FORCES HAVE PROVED SUPERIORITY, WASHINGTON STATES

Washington, Oct. 1.—Shaken, but still powerful, is the estimate of Germany's defensive strength on the western front, given in this week's official communiqué issued by the War Department here. The superiority of the British over their enemies, the communiqué says, has been proved conclusively by the last week's fighting, where it has demonstrated that the fighting stamina of the Germans is deteriorating.

Of the activities of the American force in Europe the communiqué says absolutely nothing. Of the forces at home it reports mobilization of the National Guards and the national army proceeding satisfactorily.

AMERICAN WARSHIP WHICH WAS AGROUND WAS FLOATED TO-DAY

An Atlantic Port of the United States, Oct. 1.—The battleship of the United States which went aground in home waters on Sept. 28 was floated to-day. The sea was smooth and a large fleet of vessels pulled the warship off at high tide.

British Record This Year Shows Plainly Where War Leading

London, Oct. 1.—General Sir William Robertson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, speaking yesterday at the opening of a hospital at Hampstead, said that during 1917 the British armies have captured more Germans and four times as many guns as the Germans have taken from the British during the whole war. The British were now fighting with the best materials, while the enemy's resources were diminishing. The German losses had grown heavier, while the British losses were lighter.

TRIBUNAL MAY SIT FOR FIVE WEEKS

City Council Receives Intimation From Ottawa; Rush at Montreal

A letter received by the City Council to-day from the Deputy Minister of Justice, Ottawa, contains an intimation to the effect that it was considered probable that the sittings in Victoria of the tribunals, under the Military Service Act, would extend from three to five weeks.

Montreal, Oct. 1.—So great is the rush of men of military age here to be examined by the medical board for the army that the headquarters on Union Avenue have been found insufficient to accommodate the crowds and a second board will begin to-day in the Craig Street armories to relieve the pressure. Other boards will be established when the Government sends out the awaited proclamation with reference to the exemptions. The percentage of French-Canadians applying for medical examination is increasing from day to day and it is expected that when there is an examining board in the east end of the city there will be a steady stream of French-Canadian citizens to be examined.

ANOTHER GERMAN SPY CAUGHT; THIS ONE TAKEN IN CUBA

Havana, Oct. 1.—Paul Berger, formerly attached to the German legation here, his official capacity ending when Cuba declared war on Germany, was detained yesterday by an agent of the Cuban secret police and placed in the Morro fortress. The charge against him is espionage.

BRILLIANT MOVE WAS MADE BY BRITISH IN REGION OF BAGDAD

Maude's Troops Captured Mushaid Ridge and Practically Whole Garrison of Ramadiah, including the General and Staff; 300 Camels Taken

London, Oct. 1.—An official report issued here concerning the operations in Mesopotamia announces the capture on Friday of Mushaid Ridge, in the region of Bagdad. British forces attacked the Turkish main position in the region of Ramadiah from the south, east and west, and continued the attack Saturday, the enemy everywhere surrendering. The capture by the British includes guns, ammunition and several thousand prisoners, including Ahmed Bey and his staff.

The report of Major-General Frederick S. Maude, commander of the expedition, says:

"After an advance Thursday night we attacked the enemy's advanced position at Mushaid, four miles east of Ramadiah, early Friday morning. Mushaid Ridge was occupied with little difficulty.

October 15 Said to Be Date for First Draft for the Army

Toronto, Oct. 1.—The Toronto Globe stated this morning that the first draft under the Military Service Act will be called out on October 15. Well-informed Ottawa correspondents, however, think October 15 is the more approximate date.

NO PREMATURE PEACE, SAYS FRENCH LEAGUE

New Organization; President
Irigoyen's Plan Does Not
Impress Washington

Paris, Oct. 1.—A new organization, called the "Republican League for National Defence," with Antoine Duboulet, Paul Deschanel and Leon Bourgeois, Minister of State, as honorary presidents, is causing widespread comment in the press. The keynote of the programme of the league appears to be "no peace with the assassins before our victory and their chastisement," and the direct object of the organization is to fight against all tendencies toward a premature and inconclusive peace.

The membership of the league includes representatives of all political parties from Conservatives to Liberals of the Radical and Socialist parties and comprises even some former extremists such as Leopold Lacour, who was once a contributor to the anarchist organ Libertaire.

Clumsy Scheme.

Paris, Oct. 1.—Fresh German manoeuvres whereby it is sought to create a division among the Entente Powers are pointed out by the Geneva correspondent of The Temps in a dispatch to that paper. He quotes a person in the German diplomatic service as having declared recently:

"The war henceforth can lead to nothing but triumph for Great Britain and her American and Japanese Allies. The interests of France, if well understood, would be to exploit the need for peace, which manifests itself in all of Alsace and Lorraine, provided Germany was allowed to round out her territory in the direction of Russia."

Irigoyen's Plan.

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 1.—President Irigoyen to-day continued his efforts to bring about a congress of the South American republics to consider international affairs in their effect on this hemisphere. The President's programme is for the South American republics jointly to demand that Germany end the war, or else suffer a solid South American boycott and a declaration in favor of the Entente Powers. Representatives of other leading South American republics are said to be in harmony with President Irigoyen's purpose.

Recently Rejected.

Washington, Oct. 1.—All expectations that Argentina might follow the lead of her neighbor and break with Germany have been dispelled here by the news that President Irigoyen is determined not to heed the action of the Argentine Congress and popular demand for action and will continue a neutral course. His suggestion that all South America determine her war course by a joint conference is not expected to bear fruit, because a similar proposal was rejected by all the other more important Governments some time ago.

"A column, continuing to advance, manoeuvred away from the river, attacking the Turks' main position about Ramadiah from the southeast. A severe battle ensued lasting throughout Friday. By nightfall our troops had carried the main positions and were encircling Ramadiah from the east, southeast and south at a distance under two miles from the town. Our cavalry captured the land cordon, while the Euphrates runs on the north side of the town. The enemy during the night attempted to break out westward but was headed back by our cavalry.

"Our troops resumed the attack vigorously Saturday at daybreak, with the result that at 9 o'clock in the morning the enemy was surrendering everywhere.

Took General.

"Included in our capture are guns, arms, ammunition, stores and equipment, and also much other booty and several thousand prisoners, including Ahmed Bey, the Turkish commander, and his staff.

"The enemy was taken entirely by surprise and practically the whole garrison of Ramadiah fell into our hands. Our troops displayed great gallantry, determination and endurance under the most difficult conditions.

"During the night of Thursday another column moved out northeast of Bagdad after a sharp skirmish with a Turkish cavalry detachment, inflicting casualties and capturing four prisoners and 300 Turkish supply camels."

PROFITS ON COAL FIXED IN STATES

How Fuel Administrator Has Solved Problem in the Republic

Washington, Oct. 1.—An order of Fuel Administrator Garfield, made effective to-day defining the profits of the retail coal and coke dealers throughout the country is expected to effect an immediate decrease in the prices now charged the consumer. Gross margins over production cost are limited to the average of 1915 plus a maximum increase of 30 per cent., with a check provision that the average margin of July this year must not be exceeded. Compliance with the order will be enforced in the several states.

The text of the order fixing the margins says:

"On and after October 1, 1917, in making prices and sales to consumers the retail gross margin added by any retail dealer to the average cost of any size or grade of coal or coke for each class of business shall not exceed the average gross margin added by such dealers for the same size or grade for each class of business during the calendar year 1915, plus 30 per cent. of the said retail gross margin for the calendar year 1915, provided, however, that the said gross margin added by any retail dealer shall in no case exceed the average added by such dealer for the same size, grade and class of business during July, 1917. By this order retailers are requested to fix a retail gross margin which may be less than, but shall not in any instance exceed, the margin added by them in 1915, plus 30 per cent. thereof."

RAILWAY BOARD.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—Six sittings of the Railway Board will be held in the west during the month of October, beginning with Calgary on October 15. The board will be in Edmonton on the following day, Saskatoon on October 17, Regina on October 18; Winnipeg on October 19, and Fort William on October 20.

PETROGRAD READY TO RESIST AIR RAIDS

Observation Posts; Gurko Expelled From Russia; Bolsheviki and Berkman

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—The Russian capital is preparing seriously to resist air raids. A series of observation posts within a radius of 200 miles has been established. Aeroplane patrols are on duty, and arrangements have been made for darkening the city when the approach of enemy airmen is announced by the blowing of sirens.

Gurko Expelled.

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—General Gurko, former commander-in-chief on the southwestern front, has been expelled from Russia by way of Archangel because of the letter he wrote to the former emperor expressing his loyalty. A telegram from Archangel announces the general's arrival, and says he boarded a British vessel.

Bolshéviki and Berkman.

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—Several thousand members of the Bolsheviks at a mass meeting last night adopted a resolution of protest against the imprisonment and reported imposition of the death sentence upon Alexander Berkman, the anarchist. Agitators who came here recently from the United States harangued the crowd, which packed a big circus tent. The speakers scoffed at American liberty, and said that the bourgeoisie ruled that country, but the Bolshevik audience applauded only mildly.

A threatened demonstration against the American Embassy was not carried out. The Government, preparing for eventualities, had sent an armored motor car and a detachment of troops to guard the Embassy. Ambassador Francis said he had no fears of possible harm, and did not request a guard. After the adjournment of the meeting the guard was recalled.

LOSSES INFLICTED BY BRITISH AND FRENCH

Attacks by Germans Merely Reacted to Their Own
Disadvantage

London, Oct. 1.—Field Marshal Haig last night reported heavy attacks in the Ypres sector. The text of the communication follows:

"Early this morning the enemy heavily bombarded our positions between Tower Hamlets and Polygon Wood and subsequently launched three attacks, all of which were repulsed with loss. The first was delivered south of Rettebeke. It was beaten off by our fire before reaching our positions. Shortly afterward hostile infantry advanced astride the Ypres-Menin road under cover of a thick smoke barrage and accompanied by flammenwerfer detachments, and succeeded temporarily in driving in one of our advanced posts. An immediate counter-attack recaptured the post, together with a number of prisoners and machine guns.

"Later in the morning an attempt to repeat this attack was broken up by our artillery.

"The hostile artillery was active today along our front between the Ypres-Comines Canal and Zonnebeke and in the Nieupoort sector. Our artillery activity continued."

An official report on aerial operations issued last night said:

"On Saturday the weather was unfavorable for aerial work. A number of valuable photographs were taken and observations carried out for the artillery.

"Bombing of the enemy aerodromes, billets, dumps and railways continued vigorously by day and night. The Gotrode aerodrome was the chief target, and a large fire was caused there. One of the enemy balloon sheds also was set on fire and destroyed by a naval pilot.

"The enemy's fighting machines were not very active yesterday. There were few combats. One German machine was brought down. Two of our machines are missing."

French Report.

Paris, Oct. 1.—The following official report was issued here last night:

"On the Alsace front, after an artillery preparation, three enemy detachments this morning attempted to reach our trenches north of Berry-au-Bac. One German group which succeeded in entering an advanced element of our lines was driven out immediately. At all the other points our fire arrested the advance of the enemy, who suffered heavy losses.

"A very spirited artillery action was maintained all day on both banks of the Meuse, particularly north of Hill 344 and near the Bois-de-Chaume."

"German aeroplanes bombed the region of Dunkirk on September 27, 28 and 29. The first two bombardments caused no material damage; the last, which was violent, caused several losses among the civilian population.

"Two German machines were brought down by our pilots on September 29. On the night of September 28-29 some of our aeroplanes bombed the station at Colmar and enemy establishments north of Seissons, dropping 4,000 kilos of projectiles with success."

German Statement.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—Heavy artillery fighting on the Belgian coast and along the northern end of the western front was told in an official statement issued here yesterday. The British troops undertook reconnoitering expeditions at many points.

"Our aviators attacked docks and warehouses in London, as well as Ramsgate, Sheerness and Margate. The effect of the bombs was recognizable and conflagrations caused. Our aeroplanes returned undamaged."

CREW OF RUSSIAN DESTROYER TRUE TO LAST; MINE STRUCK

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—The following announcement was issued last evening by the War Office here:

"On the northern, western, southern and Roumanian front there were fusillades and reconnaissances. On the Caucasian front there were no events of importance.

"A report received on September 29 shows that forty-three men were saved from the torpedo boat Ochotuk (the sinking of which by a mine in the Baltic was announced on Friday). All the officers and other men voluntarily remained on the ship and perished.

"On the southwestern front 360 pounds of bombs were dropped in various places by our light aeroplanes and 1,500 pounds by our Murometz machines on enemy troops and transports. Near the village of Ohlenorokha a German aeroplane was brought down by one of our machines. On the same front one of our aviators brought down an enemy aeroplane in flames."

FRENCH WAR CROSS TO AN AMERICAN SOLDIER

Paris, Oct. 1.—The first American soldier to win the French War Cross with the palm is John McClain, of Dayton, Ohio, says The Paris Herald. On the night of September 18 a German aeroplane flew over the village in which he was and dropped several bombs. One fell within 15 feet of a building around which some 50 villagers had gathered.

Notwithstanding the warning expositions of those near him, the newspaper continues, Pte. McClain dashed into the road, and discovering the bomb with the aid of a pocket electric lamp, picked it up and hurled it into the river. The projectile exploded as it struck the water. No one was hurt.

THROG ATTENDED FUNERAL OF ASHE

Government Did Not Interfere
With Demonstration in Dublin Yesterday

Dublin, Oct. 1.—The funeral procession which followed the body of Thomas Ashe, the Sinn Féin leader, from the city hall here to Glasnevin Cemetery yesterday was extremely large, exceeding in numbers even that of the Parnell funeral in 1891. The procession was well organized and perfect order was kept. The principal contingents were Irish Volunteers, the Gaelic Athletic Association, the Gaelic League, the Liberty Hall citizen army and the Dublin trade unions. There also were many representatives from women's clubs. More than a dozen bands played patriotic airs. The three-mile route was lined with spectators and the bells of the cathedral were tolled as the procession passed along. The Irish Volunteers wore their uniforms and carried hurley sticks, although these were offences against military regulations. There also was a firing party at the graveside.

The Government authorities did not interfere with the demonstration, which was most impressive. The embittered feeling over the death of Ashe was much allayed by a change in the policy of the treatment of prisoners under the Defence of the Realm Act.

The prisoners are now allowed to associate together, and are separated from the ordinary criminals. They also are allowed to receive food from the outside. The hunger strike was abandoned when the Lord Mayor carried this decision of the Government to the prisoners.

NEW PARLIAMENTARY CONTROL OF FRENCH FORCES IN THE FIELD

Paris, Oct. 1.—Premier Painlevé and the army committee of the Chamber are said by the Echo de Paris to have reached an agreement in regard to parliamentary control over the French military forces, a question which has caused considerable contention during the war.

Twenty controllers will be appointed with the right to go to the army zone at any time, accompanied by an officer chosen by them. The powers will not extend to military operations, but they will have full right to all information regarding the food supplies of the army, munitions and the medical service.

DISORDERS IN TOWNS IN RUSSIA LEAD TO TROOPS BEING SENT

Petrograd, Sept. 23.—Delayed.—Disorders are reported at Tambov, 300 miles southeast of Moscow, and at Kozlov, in the Crimea, where mobs led by former criminal exiles to Siberia, burned and destroyed much grain and other property. The towns are under martial law and troops have been sent from Moscow.

Rioting also is reported in Turkistan, whither troops have been sent.

DIED AT NANAIMO.

Nanaimo, Oct. 1.—John Culligan, a resident of this district, died suddenly here on Saturday. A native of Kilnash, Ireland, he had reached the age of 69 years, and was well-known locally. He is survived by his widow, one son and three daughters—Mrs. J. W. Deppiesie, Vancouver; Mrs. John O'Connell, Victoria, and Mrs. Cain, this city. The funeral will be held on Tuesday morning early.

CATTLE, HOGS AND SHEEP IN STATES

Washington, Oct. 1.—The receipts of cattle at the principal stock yards of this country for the first eight months of 1917 show a substantial increase, but there was a decided falling off in the movement of hogs and sheep. The Department of Agriculture announces to-day that the cattle receipts of 19,679,987 head compared with 8,151,618 in the corresponding period of 1916, while receipts of hogs were 22,532,927, as against 24,409,981, and sheep 7,989,539 against 8,535,535.

The Department's statement explains the large cattle movement as due to higher prices offered, the increased cost of feed and the droughts in the southwestern section of the country. Last year an unusually large number of hogs and sheep were marketed in response to high prices. The receipts thus far this year are taken to represent rather a return to the normal movement than a distinct falling off in the supply.

ON MACEDONIAN FRONT VILLAGE CAPTURED BY ESSAD PASHA'S TROOPS

Paris, Oct. 1.—Concerning the operations on the Macedonian front the War Office here reported last night:

"Eastern theatre, Sept. 23.—Between Lakes Presba and Ochrida the enemy carried out two attacks, which were vigorously repulsed. On the left, Albanian contingents, driving back Austrian posts, occupied the village of Ceamie, in the upper valley of the Skambli."

CLEVER WORK BY A QUEBEC PATROL

An Incident of Outpost Warfare on Canadian Front in France

Canadian Headquarters in France, Sept. 30.—Via London, Oct. 1.—(By the Canadian Overseas Correspondent.)—A lieutenant and patrol of nine men of a Quebec battalion gave an object lesson on the front last night showing the value of careful scouting. The party went out into a haze lying in the lowland between the enemy line and our own and at a point about 300 yards from a German trench discovered Germans on outpost duty under the shade of some trees.

The Quebec men stalked the party as carefully as if the enemy had been deer in the northern woods. They captured three and killed the others. After bringing in the prisoners, the lieutenant, feeling certain that the enemy, having heard the sound of firing, would investigate, took out a patrol again and concealed his men near the outpost. A second party of Germans appeared shortly afterwards and in the fight that followed three of them were captured, one after sustaining severe wounds. Not one of our men was hit.

The enemy at times has called Canadians hard names, but it is "Dear Tommy" now. German soldiers at Lens fired the following message into our line by the use of an aerial dart: "Dear Tommy: The German Tommy sends you hearty greetings from Lens. When will there be peace? Please reply."

HOW AMERICANS WILL PAY FOR WAR SHARE

Not the Intention Anybody Should Escape Assisting With Taxes

Washington, Oct. 1.—The $2,700,000,000 war tax measure in this country catches almost everybody from the cradle to the grave and for good measure levies a few taxes on the heirs.

Under the two per cent. manufacturers' tax on cosmetics baby's first few boxes of talcum powder will help Uncle Sam carry on the war, and after death the federal collectors will be on hand to get the inheritance tax, an advance on the present rate of from one per cent. on $50,000 to 10 per cent. on $1,000,000. Between birth and death most of man's activities will be taxed, voting proxies at meetings of cemetery associations being among the few specifically exempted.

Those who have profited most by the war, the recipients of enormous excess war profits, will pay the most to help carry it on. Almost half the total amount of the measure, or about $1,100,000,000, is to be collected from them. The person who writes a postal card will be caught, for cards will be sold for two cents each under the provisions of the measure. Letters will be three cents. There will be taken when one goes to a moving picture show, if the admission is over five cents, one-tenth the cost of the ticket. That rate will affect all who attend amusements from the man in the gallery to the man in the box. A host of stamp taxes, designed to raise $30,000,000, also will get the man with little money in many ways. His greatest consolation is that the consumption taxes, which would have made him pay on coffee, tea and sugar, were stricken from the bill.

The men of moderate means as well as the wealthy are affected by the income tax section. Normal rates have been doubled and exemptions lowered to $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married ones. The surtaxes for incomes above $5,000 range from one to fifty per cent., the maximum applying to incomes over $10,000. This section is expected to raise $600,000,000.

Included in the taxes imposed on the manufacturers are levies of one-quarter of a cent a foot on motion picture films; two per cent. on the sale of chewing gum and three per cent. on automobiles, musical instruments and jewelry.

Even drowning one's troubles in drink or sending them up in smoke will cost more, for the levies on all kinds of drinks and tobaccos soar. The new rate on whisky is $2.10 per gallon and beer $2.50 a barrel. The wine taxes are to be doubled and even grape juice will be taxed a cent a gallon.

A person can not escape by travel. Eight per cent. is assessed on passenger tickets and sleeper tickets also pay a tax.

VALUABLE WORK BY UNITS FROM CANADA

Reports on Operations in France of Railway and Forestry Corps

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—The Militia Department has received two interesting reports covering comparatively recent operations in France of Canadian railway and forestry corps. In regard to the latter, it is stated that 12 new companies of the Canadian Forestry Corps have arrived in France, making a total of 42 now in that country, with a total strength of 250 officers and 7,232 other ranks. These figures do not include the second Canadian construction company (colored) 11 officers and 420 men. A very large quantity of mill machinery and logging equipment has been received.

The report states that the sixth company, situated in the English army area, continues to increase its output. The production of the companies in this area proved of great value during the Vimy and Messines attacks, a large quantity of timber of all kinds having been supplied for roads, dugouts, gun emplacements and mining operations.

Two newly-arrived Canadian forestry companies have been dispatched to the French army area, where operations have commenced in a forest which a short time ago was held by the enemy, who had a sawmill. There are still on the ground a large number of trees felled by the Germans, who were driven from the territory before they could convert them into lumber. It has been established also that the German army has been in the habit of sending logs from this front to Germany. The operations of these companies will be within a few kilometres of the firing line, and it has been necessary to have all men equipped with and trained in the use of gas helmets. They also have been equipped with steel helmets.

The report on the Canadian railway troops states that during the month of July alone these forces located 82 miles of narrow-gauge railway and in some of wide gauge. In addition they ballasted over 100 miles of railway and kept other lines in regular repair. During the month nearly 300 miles of railway line was being maintained by this force, which number approximately 8,000 men. The casualties during the period totalled three officers and 88 men.

The report states that a number of battalions engaged in narrow-gauge work were employed close behind the lines. The railway lines have to be constructed close up to the firing line, and on account of the increased shelling of back areas on the part of the enemy, a great amount of repair work has had to be done.

Presenting Unusual Values in

Women's Black Plush Coats

At $27.50 to $97.50

THAT Plush Fabrics will play an important part in the staging of the new Fall Coat Modes is evident by the large stocks and elaborate showing now being displayed in our show windows and Mantle Section. There are many beautiful models developed from the well-known "Salt" seal plushes and Lister's celebrated plush fabrics. In many cases touches of fur adorn these charming coats, which puts them in a class of their own. Most notable of all is the really remarkable pricings at which these new Plush Coats may be purchased this season.

VIEW WINDOW DISPLAY

Women's Plush Coats at $27.50 to $97.50

Misses' Plush Coats at $27.50 to $50.00

Plush Coats for Junior Girls (ages 12 to 15 years) at $10.50 to $15.00

Plush Coats for the Wee Tots (ages 2 to 10 years) at $4.50 to $10.00

To Preserve the Original Beauty of Plush Garments

1. Always hang the garment when not in use.
2. When plush is spotted by rain, or snow, hang up. When nearly dry, use a soft brush and brush the pile up and down. This releases the pile and causes each fibre to fluff up.
3. When possible, avoid sitting on the garment to prevent pile crushing. You will be repaid for your trouble with beauty and service.

SIR FREDERICK'S CLASSIC.

If the shades of those twin geniuses of war, Hannibal and Napoleon, were hovering over the Euphrates towards the end of last week, they saw something which must have fired them with enthusiasm—a classic in successful military strategy, reminiscent of Cannae and Austerlitz, where the Carthaginian and Corsican conquerors, respectively, won their brightest fame. It was the re-opening of the campaign of the Army of Mesopotamia against Turkey, in the form of a masterly performance which adds another page to the brilliant record which Sir Frederick Maude introduced at Kut-el-Amara. An operation which began on Thursday night ended on Saturday with the capture of the enemy's positions, guns, arms, ammunition, stores and equipment and several thousands of prisoners, including Ahmed Bey, the Turkish commander, and his staff.

The scene of this remarkable achievement was the district watered by the Euphrates, about seventy miles west of Baghdad. That river parallels the Tigris some distance before sweeping around to the south and then east to join it at Kurna, a hundred miles from the Persian Gulf. At Baghdad the two rivers are fifty miles apart, and are connected by a series of ancient canals. The British campaign in Mesopotamia from the start was not only an affair of the Tigris, although the advance up that river was the main operation. It also involved movements on the Euphrates to prevent the Turks on that river crossing to the Tigris south of Baghdad and cutting the communications of the main part of Sir Frederick Maude's army.

After Baghdad was captured last spring, it will be recalled, the British continued their march along the railroad northward towards Samarra, one hundred miles distant, while another column moved northeastward along the Djalila River, a tributary of the Tigris, to join the Russian force coming down from the Persian border. It was hoped that the two armies would be able to effect a junction before the Turkish forces operating in Persia could escape into Mesopotamia. British and Russians came into contact about a hundred miles northeast of Baghdad, but not in time to catch the enemy who had abandoned all his stores and crossed into Mesopotamia. Meanwhile the Turks who had been operating on the Euphrates established themselves on both banks of the river, where it begins to parallel the Tigris and about seventy miles west of Baghdad. Operations on both sides then had to be abandoned on account of the summer heat.

During the last six months the Turks have been reorganizing their forces and in other ways repairing the losses suffered by them in the Baghdad campaign. This work was carried out under the direction of von Mackensen, and from time to time Berlin regaled us with announcements of a mighty campaign that leader was to undertake this fall for the recapture of Baghdad. If von Mackensen had any such intention it was fairly certain that one aspect of his programme would be an advance down the Euphrates and then a cut across to the Tigris with the object of trapping Sir Frederick Maude's army beyond Baghdad.

The Turkish army on the Euphrates last week was established on the Mushaid ridge north of the river, but also held the little town of Ramadiah in a bend south of the river. The ridge was captured without difficulty on Thursday night, and Maude proceeded to encircle the town of Ramadiah, where apparently the Turkish commander and his staff had their headquarters. This was done by brilliant cavalry manoeuvres, the British establishing themselves on the east, southeast and south of the town, while a column circled to the west of it. The enemy tried to break out on the west, but was frustrated, and finally the whole place was captured with all its contents, including Ahmed Bey and his staff.

The official bulletin says the Turks were taken entirely by surprise. This is easily understood, for a more skilful, finished operation has not been carried out anywhere in this war. It furnishes further evidence that in Sir Frederick Maude the British army has a strategist of extraordinary ability; a clear-headed, far-sighted soldier who executes his plans with the boldness and swiftness of a Bonaparte. When we remember that the Turk is one of the best defensive fighters in Europe and takes particular care of his communications, on which he is notoriously sensitive, we can appreciate more fully the splendid work of Sir Frederick Maude and his fine army last week. The British campaign of 1917-18 against Turkey has had a most auspicious opening in Mesopotamia. We may now look for a second spectacular stroke in Palestine.

PROHIBITION.

The scalp of British Columbia now dangles at the sash of the Prohibition movement. Thus, from the Ottawa River to the Pacific Ocean is a belt which, while it would be inaccurate to call it "dry," no longer numbers Bacchus among its gods by official sanction. This is not to say that the devotees of the once-popular divinity have abandoned him altogether. Indeed, this would be an impossible conquest for the Prohibition champions, for the Millennium dawn itself still will find him with a considerable army of votaries. But he no longer will receive homage at the public shrine presided over by a high priest in a white apron.

Proof of the fact that he has not been abolished could be furnished by the liquor trade if it had a mind to do so. At this moment the elder Bacchus and a big family of little Bacchuses are comfortably installed in many a cellar and basement and for a long time will have no trouble in finding sanctuaries enlure.

According to those best able to judge, Prohibition so far has justified itself generally in those districts where it has been tried. They say it has benefited ordinary business through the diversion of money to quarters of the greatest value to the community and through the improvement of collective efficiency. This is particularly the case where there is a large wage-earning population. In such circumstances we doubt if any of the Canadian provinces which have had prohibition for a year or more would vote to return to the old order if they had an opportunity of doing so. Whether that attitude will be permanent remains to be seen. Waves of this kind have swept over the world in cycles for thousands of years, ever since Noah and the other patriarchs used to stimulate their fading energies with the juice of the grape. During the time of the Plantagenets a number of serious attempts were made to prohibit the drinking of intoxicants in England. It was decreed that anybody found under the influence of wine or with wine in his possession should be beheaded. And the law was drastically enforced, too. Numerous and various kinds of heads decorated the public places, but a few years later there was as much promiscuous wine-bibbing as ever.

With British Columbia, Washington and Oregon in the "dry" column—generally speaking—the Prohibition workers in California will feel somewhat lonely. The indications, however, point to the adoption of a modified form of Prohibition in that state in the near future, that is to say, a form of Prohibition which will not uproot the extensive wine and grape industries which play so large a part in the economic life of the state.

GERMANY'S FIFTH RAID.

While the curtain of fire the anti-aircraft guns of London threw into the sky prevented the raiders last night from doing much damage, the London newspapers are not satisfied that the problem of defence against these raids has been solved. They point out that aeroplane activity is capable of great expansion and this will call for new and ever-changing counter-measures.

As long as the British authorities confine themselves to defensive measures against Germany's offensives these raids will be continued, and it is impossible to make the defences complete enough to prevent a proportion of the raiders getting through. A single swift aeroplane, taking advantage of the bright moonlight, is capable of destroying hundreds of people. And the opposition of the authorities to a counter-offensive against Germany, an attitude altogether inconsistent with the policy on land and even with the blockade against Germany, is a standing invitation to the enemy to continue these nocturnal visits.

Germany's air raids over England are not affairs of spite and malice. Their purposes are: first, to create internal trouble; secondly, to weaken the British air-service at the front; third, to compel the British authorities to use large quantities of arms and munitions which otherwise would have gone to France. They have failed in the first, but unquestionably they have had some success in respect of the second and third and that success might have become a serious factor but for the extraordinary development of British's munition and aircraft establishments.

A British aerial offensive against Germany would be intended to keep a large number of German aircraft at home and to weaken the enemy in that arm at the front. It also would discourage the enthusiasm with which the German people hail the official Berlin reports of the bombardment of British towns and demand more of it. Those who oppose British aerial offensive against Germany contend that they would not stop the German raids over England, no matter how many German towns are bombed. They point out that the French retaliatory raids over Karlsruhe and Freiburg did not put an end to German raids over French cities. But, as a matter of fact, organized German raids over open French towns are few and far between, due unquestionably to the French practice of promptly bombing a German town for every German raid over an open French town. For the most part the Rhine is on the defensive against France while the Thames is on the defensive against Germany.

Yesterday a French aeroplane dropped half a ton of explosive on Stuttgart, the well-known capital of Wurttemberg, in retaliation for the dropping of bombs by the Germans on Bar-le-Duc. Stuttgart is 150 miles from Nancy and is, therefore, within convenient striking range. There will be a howl from Wurttemberg, but it will be a howl to Berlin for more protection. If Britain and France were to sweep the Rhine from Essen to Switzerland with a vast aerial offensive there would be mighty few German raids over London or any other British town.

WHAT THEY MISSED.

The British Admiralty in 1915 was roundly criticized for sending the navy against the Dardanelles—after the attempt failed. Information since obtained from Turkish sources and press correspondents then with the Turkish army shows that the Admiralty was on the right track, and that the only mistake made was when the navy stopped firing on March 19 owing to the loss of some ships. During the two attacks at the entrance of the Strait the Allied fleets lost the Bouvet, Irresistible, Ocean and Gaulois, and after the second operation abandoned the attempt to force their way through without the support of land forces. Had they known that on March 19 the Turkish chief command had everything in readiness to evacuate the defences of the Strait and that the chief forts dominating the passage a few miles from their mouth had only twenty-seven armor-piercing projectiles left, Constantinople long since would have been in their hands. It was generally reported at the time that the Turks were preparing to transfer their capital to Anatolia and, according to George Schreiner who then represented the Associated Press with their armies on Gallipoli, it was because they knew they could not stand another day's bombardment by the fleets. The German officers whom he questioned on the night of March 18 said the ammunition problem was very acute, and that the next day would confront them with a difficult situation. With the forts silenced it would not have taken long for the mine sweepers to sweep up the mines. Unfortunately the second attempt was brought to an end all too soon. Another hour's firing Mr. Schreiner says would have altered the whole situation of the war. The Turks improved the peninsula and substituting modern armament from Germany for the antiquated defences which up to that time had existed there.

ROTTING GRAIN AND IDLE SHIPS.

More than one hundred neutral ships have been waiting two months at our Atlantic ports for export licenses which will not be given to them. Four-fifths of these ships are from Holland. In New York harbor alone at least seventy Dutch vessels can be seen. A large majority have cargoes of wheat and fodder that were placed on board before July 15, when the embargo became effective. The grain is rotting. Thus far the Dutch Government and owners of the ships have refused to unload it. They have rejected our Government's reasonable proposition that they should send the cargoes to Australia, where 125,000,000 bushels of wheat await transportation. Surely they will not be permitted to carry their cargoes of American grain to Holland or any other European neutral country. This was the decision of our Export Council before Sweden's foul work for Germany in the case of Argentina's ships was brought to light, and the disclosures do not suggest any relaxation of the strict embargo on exports to Sweden, Norway, Holland and Denmark. But the cargoes have not been disturbed, and all these ships are idle.

IN DOUBT.

"What do you think of the new minister?" "Don't know yet. He hasn't been here long enough for me to discover whether he is going to preach the kind of sermons I ought to hear or the kind I like to hear."

"CHARIOTS OF MERCY."

(The New York Times.)

The name of the war now on every lip is Cadorna. We have accentuated on this page the importance of his great forward movement, which has given hope and courage to the Allies everywhere. But his victories are achieved at a fearful cost of dead and wounded. One of the ways of aiding him is by providing ambulances, and this the Poets' Committee is engaged in doing. It is no easy task to raise $50,000 in nineteen days for any new fund, but this amount has already been assured, and by to-morrow nineteen of these cars will have been bought by cable in Italy. The committee set out to get fifty cars by October 1. Why should they not have the other twenty-five or even more, at once? The love of Italy and the interest of our common cause with her ought to combine to insure the full success of this emergency work, which is not done in rivalry with any other activity. We are assured that not a moment of unnecessary delay will occur between the receipt of a two-thousand-dollar cheque by the committee and the conversion of it into an ambulance in Milan, ready to go to the firing line. The ambulances are to be numbered and each is to bear the name of the donor, and reports of its activity will preserve the sympathy and "personal equation" to the end of the war. Cheques in any amount, drawn to the order of Mr. George A. Plimpton, treasurer, should be sent to Mr. R. U. Johnson, chairman, 70 Fifth Avenue.

HEROIC BRITISH COLUMBIANS.

(Montreal Herald.)

Certain men of a British Columbia battalion did some heroic fighting (says Mr. H. Perry Robinson, of The Times and Daily News). There were 40 of them in an advanced position, among a litter of shell-holes, ruined walls, and ploughed-up railway embankment. Through the debris the Germans kept flinging attack after attack, and several times they surged up to this advanced post, so that there was hand-to-hand fighting. The Western men meeting the enemy body to body, using their bayonets and rifibuts or grappling the Germans by their throats and hurling them back. When supports came up and took over the post over 120 dead Germans lay before it.

The Canadians also tell of an exploit of one of their number, who is a Russian by birth. He crept out and installed himself in a position among ruins where he commanded a section of enemy trench, taking with him a number of hand-bombs. Whenever two or three of the enemy gathered together in the trench he flung a bomb, and the Germans seem never to have discovered where the bombs came from. Afterwards in the loop of trench which he commanded there were found 28 dead.—Canada, Sept. 1.

HOW MUCH THE TRACTOR SAVES.

(Farm and Fireside.)

Within the next ninety days I judge that orders for fully 100,000 tractors will be placed by farmers who have come to the conclusion that mechanical power is better and cheaper than horseflesh for heavy farm work. Here is a little incident which some may regard as trivial, but I hope those seriously interested in tractors will appreciate its true significance. At the demonstration I met two young men who were brothers. They already had a tractor which they own in common and which they bought last fall. First they went to their State short course, where one of them studied farm mechanics and the other took a course in crops and soils. Then they both went to last year's tractor demonstration and placed their order immediately. A month later it was delivered, and they used it for fall ploughing, also for belt work during the winter. By spring they knew their machine perfectly, and were able to rush their crops into well-prepared seed beds. "The year before we paid $850 for the extra help and horse labor we needed on our 240-acre farm," one of the brothers told me, "but in the year since we have had the tractor we have cut that cost to $300—the wages of just one man. The total cost of running the tractor for the year was between $250 and $300, including fuel and oil."

THE WOMEN OF CANADA.

(Providence Journal.)

Whatever form the call for service has taken, the response of the women of Canada can be described by no other word than magnificent. Quite apart from their entrance into industrial and commercial life, which is another subject, they have met every demand for organized relief work and patriotic contribution with a steady purpose that has left no chance for failure. On them has fallen the burden of "carrying on" through personal bereavement and the stress of anxiety. And they have done it. Leaders of many branches of women's work in this country have lately been visiting them to learn from their experience in forms of organization. Every American woman may learn from the fine spirit with which her Canadian sisters have met the test of war a lesson in patriotism that applies itself to new and unfamiliar tasks with fess and feathers cast aside and one watchword only—results.

TURKEY'S FATE.

(Rocheester Post-Express.)

Turkey has no illusions as to what she may expect from an Entente victory. It is probable that she is equally alive to her fate under German domination, should such domination be made a result of the war. In the latter case she might look for despoliation of government powers under the guise of friendship. Every American woman who believes the Turks would be completely won over by Germany is aware that she has committed national suicide.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, October 1, 1892.

The British Columbia Gazette contains notice of the appointment of John Chapman Davis, M. D., of the city of Victoria, to be Health Officer for the Province.

Messrs. Spratt and Gray are shipping this evening on the steamer Danube one boiler and two retorts constructed by them for the oil refinery at Refuge Bay owned by Mr. Robert Cunningham.

A large number of plans have been submitted for the new Government Buildings. The plans are being open-to-day at the office of the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works.

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter its chance of insertion. REMARKABLE WRITING.

To the Editor:—I was much interested in reading in your Saturday edition of the Times about the exhibit sent in to the Fair by Sheriff Richards, consisting of the Prayer written by himself over thirty years ago within the floral space of a Canadian five-cent piece. I have in my possession a copy of the Prayer written four times over inside the space of an Old Country three-penny piece, which coin is just a trifle larger than our own five-cent piece. The writer, Arthur Lewis, was then in his 16th year, and I received it from him when I was a lad in a Glasgow provision store over thirty years ago.

THE SAILORS' PAY.

To the Editor:—With reference to an article published in your paper on September 28, permit me to state that the men detailed to join a ship on this Coast were, before leaving England on August 28, paid their weekly wage and three weeks in advance. This, I think, contradicts the statement in your columns of a payment of five shillings. We members of the Imperial service are hit hard in the statement. "Some hundred men have been granted meals and beds gratuitously until such time as they receive money." As far as I am able to judge no more than fifty men have ever been away from barracks at one time during our stay here. Permit me to add also that in the Naval Barracks a man has his own personal bedding and plenty of room for it, and four meals a day, the latest being between 6.30 and 7 p. m. I think you will agree that if a man has a decent bed to sleep in and four meals a day there is no necessity for him to impose upon the hospitality of the public of Victoria, B. C. It is quite understood that the Accountant's Branch of Canada can make no payments—as a matter of fact the men have only one week's money due, which is from my point of view, all the Old Country could have done. They play the game and it is up to us to do likewise. Those of us who have an service in its severity considered "foibles" broke in the colored waitresses. We are some juniors who have not yet learned what service is or how to play the game.

NOBLESSE OBLIGE.
September 28.

SUBSISTENCE ALLOWANCE.

To the Editor:—Several letters have appeared in your columns from time to time with regard to the increased cost of living which all sections of the community are alike feeling. Some sections have asked for higher pay and wages, and in getting an advance, but it may not be generally known that the wives of men serving in the Canadian Militia have to make do on a "subsistence allowance" of $12.50 per month in lieu of $30 allowance to wives of men who have voluntarily joined the Canadian Expeditionary Force as well as to those whose husbands are being enlisted under the Military Service Act.

Now, how is it possible for these women to manage on $12.50 plus what their husbands are able to allow them out of the $10 per day which they receive, especially when there are several small children in the home, as there are in many belonging to men in the 1st Regiment Canadian Garrison Artillery, the 24th Gordon Highlanders and No. 6 Field Co. Canadian Engineers?

Those whose husbands are N. C. O.'s have to pay their way at the present cost of living without drawing upon private means even without a family to maintain, and it is almost impossible where there are children to bring up, for the gunner's, the sapper's or the private's wife in the Canadian Militia it must be quite impossible without going into debt.

Many of the men only joined the Militia in order to get into the training for overseas service, and during the war are as much on active service as those men in St. Lucia, Bermuda or elsewhere. Many of our garrison men, I am told, have recently been transferred to such units as the Flying Corps, the Army Medical Corps, the Army Service Corps and the Foresters, as well as to the regulars, but their transfers have been refused. We all realize that men are needed for our coast defence and for guard duties, but it does not seem to be realized by the authorities that the wives and families of these men, whom they retain for those duties and to whom they refuse transfers to overseas units, are entitled to at least the $30 subsistence allowance granted to the wives of men in the C. E. F., especially so as they receive no patriotic assistance.

I understand that an attempt has been made to secure for the wives of the men in the Canadian Militia this $30 for some time past, but without result, and therefore, for the sake of those who are not placed as I am, I venture to make existing conditions more widely known in the hope that something may be done.

MARGARET VOUGHT.
Victoria, September 28, 1917.

UNTRUE, SAYS MINER.

To the Editor: I hope you will allow me space in your paper to contradict an erroneous and absurd report regarding the miners of Vancouver Island and that appeared in one of the Vancouver daily papers. It is not only misleading to the general public but an insult to the intelligence of the island miners.

The report speaks of the miners driving around in cars, going on hunting trips, making $750 per day, but working only half time so as to earn just sufficient to supply his simple needs. This is not the case, and only gives a false impression of the real conditions that exist in the mining camps. Miners never had to work harder than at the present time to make ends meet, owing to the high cost of living. He has to work every day in the week or go without some of his "simple needs."

And now I see he is blamed for creating the coal shortage—according to City Purchasing Agent Stuart—and that the two big collieries are short-handed to the extent of 2,400 men. Why, if the conditions existed as stated in the Vancouver paper there would be miners flocking to Vancouver Island in thousands from every part of the continent. But the reputation of the Vancouver Island coal companies is too well known to miners all over. Hence the shortage.

In all my experience as a coal miner I never saw a company having to go short of men if it treated its employees in a reasonable way.

It is also stated that the situation has grown serious, and it is suggested that the course followed over in Washington be adopted in British Columbia. Let us hope the miners here are fully alive to that phase of the situation. We don't want industrial conscription here.

Yes, miners, get your gun and blanket over your shoulders and have a day's hunting. It will at least be a change of environment and help to rid your lungs of some "foreign material," and let us hope you are lucky enough to get a deer. It will reduce the cost of your "simple needs."

The Laugh Line

It may take almost as many tailors to make a man as collectors to induce him to pay for the job.

A woman likes to have a man flatter her even when she knows he is a pernicious fabricator.

Faith is something that enables a man to close his eyes to his own faults and imagine his neighbors can't see them.

ONE RELIEF.

Said the man in jail:
"From behind the wicket
"Well, nobody now
Tries to sell me a ticket."

—Kansas City Journal.

THE CAUSE.

"So the meeting broke up in a row."
"Yes." "What was the trouble?" "Soe pacifist started a riot when he found he couldn't have things his own way."

COMPARISON.

"Marriage is much like war." "Trouble most of the time, I presume." "No. It either makes or breaks a man."

A NATURAL INFERENCE.

"Have you heard the latest war news?" "Probably not," replied J. Edgar Gloom. "What are the Germans denying now?"

THE PRUNE CLUB.

"Guess why those female Washington agitators are called pickets," said the man with the red tie as he seated himself at the breakfast table. "Cause they're easily seen through." "No, no," chorried the man. "Maybe it's because they're painted," ventured the prim maiden lady. "Nix," came from the man. "It's their 'cause they're against de fence," broke in the colored waitress. "Not exactly that," giggled the man. "Listen, because, like many other pickets, they have wooden heads."—Exchange.

ONE-HIDING PLACE.

"This is a queer little hole of a country of yours, Pat," said one of the Fly boys to our friend the other. "I've been you a bit, haven't I?" "Oh, that wasn't there's a wan'ing ye can do in it that ye can't do in yer own country." "And what is that?" asked the draft evader. "Hiding," replied Pat.—Exchange.

DIDN'T FIGURE ON THE COST.

"Before we were married you used to say I should never want for anything." "That's so. But how could I know the cost of living was going to do a sky-scraping act?"

NOW HE GOES AFTER IT.

"Times have changed." "What now?" "I was just thinking that I can remember the time when a man bought life insurance merely to get rid of the agents."

PEACE A NECESSITY.

"When you married me you said you'd give me every luxury." "Oh, that wasn't a luxury, that was a necessity." "I've let you join the Bridge Whist Club." "Pooh! That was also a necessity." "Well, I've let you have your own way in everything—but, come to think of it, I guess that was also a necessity."—Exchange.

FISHING.

"Jibway has been telling me about a famous fishing hole he discovered. All you have to do is to drop in your hook and pull up a fish." "Umph! I wouldn't put too much faith in Jibway's yarns." "No?" "Better make him tell you how long you have to wait after dropping in your hook before you pull up a fish."—Exchange.

THE EMPTY BOARD.

The cellar's filled with fruit and jam. We've pickled beets and pickled pears. We've jellies underneath the stairs. She's stocked each desk and coat retreat. With all the food that she is able. You can find something good to eat. Most everywhere but on the table.

REVERSED.

"When we were first married I gave my wife a regular allowance." "And now?" "Now, she takes all my salary and let's me have the allowance."

PREMIER BREWSTER

WILL TALK ON ROADS

Keep to the Right Will Be Discussed at Duncan Convention

One of the important items that will certainly engage the attention of the delegates to the Good Roads convention at Duncan on Tuesday of next week will be the change of the rule of the road. Its champion, if no one else, will be Alderman Gale, of Vancouver. He has recently returned from the Washington gathering, and has collected a valuable amount of data for discussion at the Duncan convention.

Below is given the programme, from which it will be seen that the Good Roads people have conspired to get Premier Brewster into a quiet corner and put things up to him. One of these is the formulation of a government good roads policy, it being contended that there is not, and never has been a policy. Despairing propagandists declare that there never will be, but hopes are entertained by others that it will be found possible to pry one loose from Mr. Brewster if the prying is gone about the right way.

About 150 delegates are expected to attend, the call having gone out to every city and municipality, every member of the Government and of the Legislative Assembly, every board of trade and all the members of the Good Roads League of B. C., all of whom are asked to unite in a vigorous campaign for the promotion of good roads in the province.

Convention Programme.

The programme follows:

Afternoon Session.
"Good Roads" luncheon at 12.30 p. m. Convention will be called to order at 2 p. m. by the president, Reeve W. A. McKenzie, of Penticton, B. C.

Address of welcome by Mayor Smith, of Duncan, B. C.

Address by the Hon. H. C. Brewster, premier of the province of British Columbia, "The Government's Policy Relative to Road Building."

Reading of minutes of meeting held at Penticton on Sept. 7, 1917, by J. S. Heales, secretary-treasurer of league.

Receiving of report of committee on constitution and by-laws.

General business.

Evening Session.

Convention will be called to order at 8 p. m. by the president, Reeve W. A. McKenzie, of Penticton.

Address by Mayor Todd, of Victoria, "The Benefits to be Derived From Good Roads."

Address by F. L. Fellowes, city engineer, city of Vancouver, "Highway Construction in B. C."

Address by J. R. Davidson, industrial commissioner of the city of Vancouver, "What Tourist Traffic Will Do for B. C."

Reports of committees.
General business.
Election of officers.

YEAR'S IMPROVEMENT AT GARBALLY RD. YARD

About two weeks' work remains before the completion of the improvement at Garbally Road yard will bring to an end the improvements at the city yard in 1917. It may be some time yet before the whole of the plant is definitely settled in its location for the winter, for it is hoped to dispose of some in connection with the tenders for surplus plant due next week.

The year has seen substantial progress made in developing the yard to the end defined four years ago, when the scheme of a central yard was first mooted. The buildings finished this year are the stores building, which is now fully in use, and is situated at the Garbally Road entrance, and the Pump building, with a separate yard for stock, on the Bridge Street frontage.

New Brick Buildings.

The implement shed mentioned above is on the same road as the stores building, but separated some distance from it. It runs at right angles to the blacksmith shop, the oldest building on the property,

Two Big Interesting Events For This Week

Opening Display of Fall Underwear

For Each Member of the Family

Our Knit Underwear Departments Are Important Factors in This Big Merchandising House

If we only recognized more the fact that the undergarment worn next to the skin is an important factor in promoting the necessary warmth and healthy comfort to the body, how careful we would be in selecting the right make, weight and grade best suited for our individual need.

From the multitude of different makes of Underwear this store makes careful selection. Choosing garments that we recognize as standard grades, being of a sanitary, health-promoting nature—garments that are made and finished on perfect, comfort-fitting lines. Made from materials that will give the best and most satisfactory service.

Our stocks are represented by such well-known makes as

STANFIELD'S, PENMAN'S, WATSON'S, TURNBULL'S, ZENITH AND MUNSING

In each different make we carry a full range of grades—the light weight, the medium, medium heavy, and extra heavy. We can also supply all sizes.

While big price advances have taken place on all Underwear during the past three years, the last year in particular, we would point out that our big and careful buying policy enables us to offer garments at but slightly higher prices than formerly, and but a fraction in comparison to the advances which have taken place at the mills. It is, therefore, to your advantage to select your Fall Underwear early.

Below we print a partial list of the many grades we recommend.

Fall Exposition of Men's and Boys'

Ready-to-Wear Starts To-morrow

This is Fall Opening Week in the Men's and Boys' Ready-to-Wear Departments. The new Suits—the new Top Coats—the new Overcoats are all here and they wait for your personal inspection and approval.

Throughout the week special displays of this merchandise is being made in the department and in the windows on Douglas and View Streets.

We Want the Men of Victoria and District to Come in and Examine Our Men's Merchandise

We believe that our present stocks are not only the largest but represent the finest values in this province. But we don't want you to simply take our word for it. We want you to come right in and examine the garments for yourself and be your own judge.

We also want parents who have boys to clothe to come and see what we have prepared for boys to wear in the way of smart Suits and Overcoats.

We were never in a better position to attend to the Ready-to-Wear needs of boys and youths. Our present showing would do justice to any store in a city of double and treble the size.

The merchandise we are showing includes styles and grades to suit all pocketbooks—from the least expensive garment that this store can recommend up to the higher-priced models of imported British manufacture.

Every garment included in our stock has been personally selected by our buyers—who are experts in the handling of Men's and Boys' Ready-to-Wear. The garments are the product of the leading tailors on this continent and in England.

Come and view this display to-morrow—you will find the Clothing Section at the corner of View and Douglas Streets, with separate entrance right off the street—the Men's Furnishings just to the right of entrance.

"BADGE OF SHAME"

IS MASTER STORY

Clara Kimball Young Seen on Pantagès Screen To-day and To-morrow in Feature

Several years ago the world was astonished by a revealing story of great depths, from out the blackness of which there was shown a soul of unexpected whiteness—a soul seared and shriveled from the heat of a lowering passion and blackened externally through contact with the debasing and degrading influences of life, yet there at the heart was a courage and honesty unacknowledged to the realm of "fallen women"—for the astounding story was of "The Badge of Shame."

There was a country where the Government furnished protection to "fallen women." This protection became known to the world as The Yellow Passport because it was printed on a yellow card, to be thus easily recognized, and bore a certificate in detail bearing the seal of the Government. One of these women, who fought against the intrigues of an unloyal official revealed a story so thrilling, so intense, so dramatic, that it became an international question.

"The Badge of Shame" is the picture of that story, and it handles the production with such vividness and tense interest that critics have called it a masterpiece.

"The Badge of Shame" comes to the Pantagès screen to-day and to-morrow with the exquisite and glorious art of Clara Kimball Young in the leading role. It is a wonder picture in the splendid details of its production and is compelling and vigorous in theme.

EVENING WITH KIPLING

Henry Schlee Will Give Entertainment in Aid of Returned Soldiers' Guild.

"The evening with Kipling was literally an evening with Kipling, not an evening with H. Schlee as his interpreter," said one of the Tientsin papers in reviewing the very delightful occasion afforded them by the lecturer who is to appear at the Empress Hotel on Friday evening of this week. On this occasion Mr. Schlee's entertainment will be in aid of the Returned Soldiers' Flower Guild. His lecture will commence at 8:30 p.m.

"We were enthralled with the same enthusiasm which has made Mr. Schlee not the least devout of Kipling's most earnest disciples," continued the Tientsin reviewer. "Kipling the philosopher, the patriot, the poet, the preacher, the interpreter of an otherwise unexpressed national spirit, the teacher of Empire, the seer whose visions in the distant past are being fulfilled in full measure to-day, was interpreted with a fervor and a magnetic appreciation that drew all hearts into the real Kipling atmosphere. No reciter could claim a greater triumph than that he was forgotten by his audience in the magnetism of his subject."

18,960 VISITED FAIR

Total Attendance at Exhibition Last Week Exceeded First Year by 1,650.

When the 1917 Home Products Fair came to a conclusion on Saturday, after a week which had afforded gratifying evidence of the large extent to which "home-made" goods could be made and grown in Victoria and Vancouver Island, it was ascertained that the total attendance for the week had amounted to 18,960, a figure which exceeded last year's attendance by 1,650.

The detailed figures for the week were as follows: Monday, 570; Tuesday, 2,470; Wednesday, 3,140; Thursday, 2,530; Friday, 5,500; Saturday, 4,350; and when the figures had been ascertained by Alderman Andros, Chairman J. L. Beckwith, Commission Charles Armstrong, Mr. Westley-Newton, and all the officials who had worked so hard to ensure the success of the second exhibition, were the subject of hearty congratulations from both visitors and exhibitors.

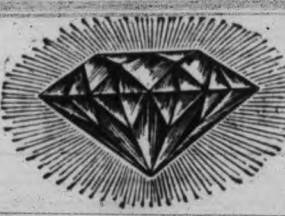

Weights of the slab of soap in the White Swan Soap weight guessing competition at the Fair as checked up and certified by Mayor Todd were as follows: 1, 29 lbs.; 2, 25½ lbs.; 3, 26½ lbs.; 4, 21½ lbs.; 5, 16½ lbs.; 6, 15½ lbs.; 7, 14½ lbs.; 8, 14½ lbs.; 9, 13½ lbs.; 10, 12½ lbs.; 11, 10 lbs.; 12, 9½ lbs.; total, 209½ lbs. The tickets will be checked up to-day and the winners announced to-night.

RED CROSS WORK

The regular monthly meeting of the George Red Cross Society will be held at the work room, Tillicum Road, to-day at 8 p.m. Mrs. Whillans, secretary, having resigned, a new appointment to the position will be made, and the raffle for the children's toys, donated by Mr. Pulliser, will also take place.

Hollywood Branch.
There will be a general meeting of the Hollywood branch Red Cross on Wednesday evening at the rooms. The proceedings will begin at 8 o'clock, and it is hoped that a big representation of the members will be present.

The amount cleared at the tea held at the home of Mrs. Bengough last Thursday was $44.75, a sum which has been placed to the credit of the branch.

Mount Toimie Branch.
The Mount Toimie branch of the Red Cross reports the following work done for September: Chest bandages, 115; pyjamas, 27; grey shirts, 32; grey socks, 62; stretchers, helmets, 11.

Miss Jarvis contributed $5, and the sum of $4.30 was realized from the sale of Red Cross pins at Mrs. D. A. Smith's Red Cross tea.

Equimant Branch.
The annual meeting of the Equimant Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society was held in Heald's Hall, Mr. T. H. Slater presided. There was a good attendance.

The secretary's report of the work sent in to head office during the year was as follows:
Pyjamas, 1,419 pair; day shirts, 618; surgical shirts, 226; abdominal bandages, 338; triangular bandages, 1,267; chest bandages, 132; socks, 1,624 pair; bed socks, 240 pair; scarves, 251; H. W. B. covers, 130; mitts, 22 pair; cuffs, 22 pair; woollen caps, 51; sleeveless vests, 16; dressing gown, 1.

Included in this list are the following from Lamson Street School, under the supervision of Miss Pooley:
Socks, 64 pair; mitts, 14 pair; cuffs, 14 pair; scarves, 36; woollen caps, 42 pair; sleeveless vests, 9; H. W. B. covers, 168; bandages, 22; shirts, 6; property bags, 12. The treasurer reported the sum of $6,236.45 remitted to head office during the year.

The secretary was instructed to send a letter of thanks to Leola Spencer, Margie Banyard, Eleanor Redhead and Kitty Davis for their contribution of thirty-five dollars ($35) towards the funds of the society, and also to Mrs. Cave for donations of Limerick lace and Paisley shawl to be raffled in the near future.

Women Call for the Instant
Dismissal of Flavell and Hanna

Members of the Vancouver Women's Liberal Association at its meeting during the week end passed a resolution expressing great satisfaction with the appointment of Mrs. J. W. deB. Farris, wife of the Attorney-General, to be a member of the University Senate.

Following the programme carried out by many other organizations a resolution was also passed calling for the dismissal from office of Sir Joseph Flavell and Food Controller Hon. W. J. Hanna. At the next meeting of the Association to be held on October 26, W. W. B. McInnes, federal candidate, for the Comox-Alberni riding, will address the gathering.

The chief business of the meeting was the election of delegates to the forthcoming annual meeting of the Vancouver City Liberal Association, city executive, Vancouver Centre annual meeting and executive, and Burrard annual meeting and executive.

Ask For Opponent.

A resolution calling upon the Liberals of Vancouver Centre to nominate a candidate to oppose the return of Mr. H. H. Stevens, M.P., was passed by the Liberals of Ward Three at their annual meeting during week end. E. S. Knowlton, who is understood to be a candidate for a Liberal nomination in Vancouver Centre, was present, and addressed the meeting upon the actions of the Winnipeg convention, to which Mr. Knowlton was a delegate. The meeting passed a vote of thanks to the Vancouver delegates and expressed approval of the action of the Winnipeg convention.

The annual election of officers and delegates to the Vancouver city annual meeting resulted as follows: Honorary president, Sir Wilfrid Laurier; honorary vice-president, Hon. H. C. Brewster; president, Howard Barker (re-elected); first vice-president, S. H. Ramage; second vice-president, H. P. Bird; secretary-treasurer, A. W. H. Vanalstine; executive committee, P. N. Shaw, W. H. Turner, E. S. Knowlton and A. J. Durkee.

Delegates to the annual general meeting of the Vancouver City and Vancouver Centre Liberal Association meetings next week were chosen.

RETAIL STORES FINISH WEEK OF BIG BUSINESS

There was a general inquiry on Saturday, in the store, in the office and on the street which went something like this: "I suppose you'll be down town to-night?" And the invariable reply was to the effect that the person asked would "be down town to-night." That a large number of Victorians did live up to the resolution made earlier in the day was obvious from the considerably more than average animated appearance of the streets for a Saturday night. From dusk until well after the lid had been effectively clamped down on the flowing bowl there was the atmosphere of the "lark" around. Everybody was looking for something to happen—and strangely enough it didn't.

Bargains Snapped Up.

Even to the casual observer there was a marked air of resignation to the new order of things. Those who felt that it was necessary to lay in a little stock had for the most part done so earlier in the week, although in several of the liquor store windows on Saturday night there were attractive last hour bargains snapped up with alacrity. Generally speaking, however, apart from numerous smaller purchases, the big trade of the retail stores was done in the week, particularly on Friday. The man with the ready cash accustomed to his moderate portion was resigned to the inevitable once after the British Columbia Prohibition Act became the law of the land, and forthwith prepared against the "rainy day."

Assistants and Vehicles.

The general air of curious expectancy on the streets on Saturday did not get its fill, and doubtless in numerous cases those accustomed to see the bar felt that it would be a "lark" to take a peep at "the long dresser" to see a last night fling. Even there, however, Saturday night was but little less different to any other Saturday night of a year ago, save that shelves were sorely depleted and everything looked like a moving to other premises with a sufficient stock retained to carry on. Most marked perhaps was the number of assistants in the retail stores and the many kinds of delivery vehicles variously employed. One of the well-known establishments had even pressed a motor cycle and trailer into the service, and there was a melancholy or cheerful tattoo—according to the intimations of him whose ear it smote—as the sputtering little "motor dray" wended its way up "Ingram Street."

The "Kick" Dies.

All things considered Victoria was very restrained on Saturday night. Good humor there was plenty, and to many the word "kick" took on quite a new significance. Even the little chap who trotted along by the side of his mother on Government Street felt that the kick he had used on the playground as an equivalent to a grouch was quite a different one. "Mother, what does this kick mean?" he asked. "Don't ask questions, there will be no kick for you" was the reply of the fond parent. And the youngster was just as resigned as the majority of the people on the streets.

Superseding the "Kick."

Considerable speculation is now abroad as to what will happen to the bars. Popularizing the erstwhile boom country by conversion into an up-standing tea shop, with the cup that cheers but does not inebriate, dispensed by charming members of the fair sex, seems to be a suggestion favored in many quarters. The creative faculties of soft drink experts are also to be brought into play since a good deal of the liquor consumed in "the old days" was not another a question of taste to the consumer, but merely a medium for sociability. To at least 50 per cent. of former moderate bar habits something with a little color, palatable without the "kick," will answer the purpose and three or four doses will not impair the gait.

Penalty Will Dampen Ardor.

"Blind pigs" and the like have been darkly hinted at as the certain outcome of the prohibition law. It is foreshadowed in many quarters that the police and the law officers generally are now about to enter on the time of their lives. In official quarters, however, there is no quail on this score. The law is perfectly clear and the prospect of six months in jail for a first offender without the option of a fine is regarded as sufficient to dampen the ardor of the would-be illicit purveyor. Even in Alberta where the first infraction is punished with the less severe penalty of a fine of from ten to fifty dollars, the inclination of the "bootlegger" waned almost to the vanishing point within a very few months of the operation of the Act. With the officers of the law armed with a working knowledge of the Act and the Government on their part fully determined on its enforcement, there is every reason to believe that British Columbia will settle down to the dry era with an equanimity befitting her importance as the great province of the Dominion.

THINKS COAL PRICES ARE REASONABLE HERE

C. P. Hill, Well-Known Operator, is on Visit of Inspection of Western Interests

C. P. Hill, the well-known coal operator, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon on a brief visit combining business with pleasure. Few men are more familiar with the coal situation than Mr. Hill, who now resides in Montreal. In the west he retains his interest in the Hillcrest collieries and in the Pacific Coast Coal mines. He has also considerable realty interests in this city and elsewhere in British Columbia.

Mr. Hill, who has discussed the fuel situation on several occasions with Fuel Controller Magrath, considers that the prices set by the Controller when he recently visited Vancouver are very fair for the coast cities, taking into consideration the shortage of labor, increased production cost, and transportation.

"I think," he said, "you will find yourselves far better off this winter on the British Columbia coast than are the majority of the people in Eastern Canada. Tonnage difficulties on the Great Lakes, and the St. Lawrence have made it very difficult to obtain coal for the Canadian cities from the usual distributing points. While there will be plenty of anthracite, a real shortage in other coals will be experienced. Recently I have been giving some attention to the situation in West Virginia in order to obtain coal for the Ontario cities. Other operators agree that there will have to be careful attention given to the situation, if we are to continue to obtain the necessary facilities to maintain transportation."

Mr. Hill, who took an active share in the great important and protracted legal proceedings concerning the Pacific Coast Coal Co., expressed his satisfaction at the decision eventually arrived at by the Privy Council. He said, however, that he had withdrawn from active direction and was now a shareholder and bondholder, so that he could not express an opinion as to the effect the lawsuit would have upon the coal properties on this island. He was glad to note, however, that several colliery properties were announced for development on Vancouver Island.

Social & Personal

Mrs. C. E. Caldwell, who has been visiting for the last month in Vancouver, has returned to her home at Cowichan Lake.

J. G. G. Kerry, of Toronto, the well-known civil engineer, was in the city for a short time on Saturday, and met City Engineer Rust.

Mr. Frank Burnett, Sr., of Vancouver, who has been visiting in the city for a few days, returned to the mainland on Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. Griffin, of Vancouver, who has been visiting in the North Yakima district, Washington, was in Victoria for the week-end.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson, of Nanaimo, was married on Monday to George E. Roy, of Bristol, Conn. The ceremony took place in San Francisco, Rev. W. E. Duggan performing the rite.

D. A. Cadzow, who has just returned from the Arctic regions, where he has been studying the habits of the Eskimo and northern Indians for a New York scientific institution, spent yesterday in the city, and proceeded on the afternoon boat to Seattle.

As the result of the enjoyable Five Hundred party held recently, $10 was added to the North Ward branch funds. Thanks are extended to Mrs. R. H. Walker, Work Street; and to Mrs. C. W. Hawkins, Hillside Avenue, for the loan of two gas-heaters. The rooms should be exceedingly comfortable during the winter, with the new heating arrangement. A donation of $5 has been received from Mrs. Norrish, Rose Street.

At Moose Jaw, Sask., the marriage took place last Thursday evening of Hazel, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Allen, of 1618 Pell Street, and William H. Wilkinson, of Marquis, Sask. The ceremony was very simple, and only a few of the immediate relatives of the principals were present. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson will make their home in Marquis, where the bridegroom is connected with the C. P. R. as chief dispatcher.

REV. CHAS. CROUCHER TALKS OF REVIVALS

Describes Modern Method as the Trading on Unbalanced
Hysteria State of Mind

TERROR AND TORTURE OF AN ETERNAL HELL

"The Good and Evil of Modern Revivalism" formed the subject of the evening sermon yesterday, at the Congregational Church. At the outset Mr. Croucher said a revival of religion seemed to be in the very air we breathed, throbbing in almost every pulse beat of the heart, and an intense desire of every true, live Christian. "Many causes can be assigned for this," he proceeded.

"The strain of a terrible anxiety, the feeling of insecurity about everything seen and temporal—the sudden collapse in the face of danger of the luxurious habits and freakish frivolities of our civilization. All this has made life simpler and sterner. It has thrown us back upon more primitive emotions, and by its unwelcome discipline it seems to be preparing us for a new vision of God.

Aestheticism for Spirituality.

"Nothing is easier in days of prosperity than to mistake refined aestheticism for spirituality, or cunning words of human wisdom, which trip lightly from the tongue, for the knowledge of God. It is hardship and anxiety which test the substance and the reality of our faith," he continued. "Many must bear the yoke before they discover that the supreme need is not God, whom we can discuss as a problem or enjoy as an emotion; but the living Father of our spirits in whom we trust, though all the waves of trouble go over our heads.

Rational Control.

"Face to face with the war conditions," he proceeded, "some there are who look as a consequence therefrom a great religious awakening, and turn instinctively to any gleam of reviving hope, and welcome it with extravagant joy; others are full of grave foreboding in the face of any passionate movement of the human spirit, which seems to them to be lacking in rational control. There can be no doubt that these days of peril and suffering are indeed God's opportunity with us, but it depends upon the way in which we use the opportunity, the calmness of judgment, the quickness of conscience, the trained sense of the real values of life, with which we try to meet this great experience, whether it passes swift judgment upon us as the victim of reaction, or saves us; yet so as by fire. Of one thing we may be quite sure, there will be no revival of real religion in our hearts while reason is in abeyance and conscience is fast asleep.

Must Be Reasonable.

"We want then," continued Mr. Croucher, "to urge our plea against the snare of taking things for granted in this matter of a revival of religion. We must not cease to be reasonable because the air is thick with clamour and excitement, or mistake mere sensationalism for the action of the Holy Spirit. People may and do often drift into superstition that way.

"A genuine revival would prove our salvation, but it must reach the head as well as the heart. Emotion alone does not save a man; emotion must submit to the control of conscience lest men and women are carried away by the crazy hallucinations which have often resulted from many of the manufactured revivals.

"In speaking of modern revivalism," said he, "its good and evil, in the first place I want to say that there are circumstances in which the awakening of enthusiasm, even excitement, is by no means to be deprecated, for it is by this means great causes are often carried to success; few, perhaps none, achieve victory until the fire of emotion roused the energies of intellectual conviction and overcome the difficulties which prejudice and ignorance, apathy and self-interest are sure to place in their way. Hence, if revivalism means no more than the awakening and kindling of enthusiasm for the solid truth, or a just cause, it is that much to the good.

From Emotion to Hysteria.

"But at the same time there is an ever present danger in emotionalism for, like all fires, while a good servant it is a bad master. It is a first rate driving power, but it is apt to run away with the machine. Uncontrolled emotion easily passes over to hysteria, breaks utterly loose from the control of reason. And when people are brought together in any considerable numbers is a disease of a terribly contagious character.

"A specialist in mental pathology could tell, no doubt, how and why one passes over to the other, but the fact that they do so, and do so under certain conditions and circumstances with quite startling regularity is manifest to every intelligent observer.

"We are not so far away from those sad and disgraceful days which added the new word 'trafficking' to our language as to be forgetful of this fact. But, unfortunately, it appears that the religious emotions are most in danger of contracting this disease of contagious hysteria, and whether they are aware of it or not, it is inducing this condition the ordinary revivalists aim, and on it they depend for their success.

Trading on Unbalanced Hysteria.

"Revivalism has been so closely associated with this abnormal mental condition that it is with difficulty to be distinguished from them and, indeed, there has been little care to make any distinction," recalled Mr. Croucher, "for as a rule the revivalist regards the unbalanced hysteria state of mind as identical with the spirit of God upon the human soul and more often he lays himself out deliberately to practice it either by sensuous description of celestial joy, or by preaching the awfulness of an unreal God and the terrors and torments of an eternal hell.

"The Gospel of the professional average revivalist is the Gospel based on outworn creeds, and effete doctrines, and those who believe them are dragged back into the darkness of fifty or sixty years ago. Often there is a mischievous, obscurantism and reactionary tendency to a remarkable degree.

Fuller Faith Wanted.

"This is a serious matter," he continued, "for one or two things will result, either the progress of religious thought will be arrested, and the work of two generations will be undone, or what is far more likely after a little time, there will come a great awakening to the monstrous nature of the doctrines and the revolt against Christianity, more absolute and determined than ever before. I do not suggest that orthodox revivals have done no good, any appeal that makes a man a more sober citizen, a kinder husband, a better parent if only for a month, has some virtue in it. But the revival most needed is not a revival of antiquated beliefs, nor a regaining of the dead bones of obsolete theologies; not a reaffirmation of old dogmas and creeds, the making of new ones, but a fuller faith in God, in justice, in righteousness and in human possibilities.

The Evil Effects.

"Modern revivalism tends, as I have said, to fix false and superstitious ideas of religion upon the public mind, leaving a blighting influence and demoralizing effect as the legacy of the barbaric ideas about religion; and just in proportion as this presentation of the Gospel prevails will mischievous results follow, inevitably along the lines of human life and thought, besides the creation of a narrow and bitter spirit towards all those who differ from certain particular views of truth.

"There is a proud self-righteous spirit," he went on, "living and breathing at the core of all this modern revivalism; another easily passes over into injustice, cruelty and wrong, bearing the stamp of intolerance, and insofar as it spreads abroad becomes hard and merciless, begetting persecution, strife, alienation, bitterness of feeling, saddening to many souls, even to despair. Often, too, revivals of this sort make men and women morbid, selfish, and self-satisfied.

The Real Revival.

"We do not want men and women to segregate to themselves from this so-called wicked world, with the idea that by private prayer and penance they can make themselves acceptable to God, and ensure for themselves salvation in a future world. We want a revival which shall send men and women not merely to the penitent form, not merely to make them pray and sing, but which shall drive them by an irresistible impelling inward force of love and sympathy, a holy ambition into humanizing work of the world. We want less deference to the authority of the letter which kills, and more faithful following of that spirit that lived in the martyrs and saints.

The Need of Men.

"To know the truth," said Mr. Croucher, "and live in the power of it, is the need of the age. In the coming days just in proportion as life becomes more earnest and simple, firmer in its grip upon essential things, more conscious of its need of religion; men will care less for clever theories about God and man, and good and evil. Men will ask for the vital affirmations of faith upon which they are prepared to stake everything, now and forever. And such things are not dealt out at a worked up, manufactured revival meeting. Men ask for bread and they are given stones, and the championship of dogma is placed above the interests of truth.

Obsolete Dogmas.

"We want indeed a revival that shall mean breadth, and depth, a wider outlook upon things which are worth while; a move up that will put us high enough to see over the petty, paltry sectarian boundaries, into the larger life of God's works, where the free winds blow off the entanglements of the spiders of bigotry and prejudice. Instead of which the modern revivalist insists on fundamentals upon dogmas and doctrines which are obsolete and meaningless to the average man of to-day accompanied with a free use of the tar brush and a plentiful supply of denunciation upon men whose conceptions of truth and the real things that really matters in life differ widely, because of a fuller intelligence and the inspiration of a more luminous faith who are convinced of the benefits of freedom, education and progress for many of us. The old polemics lie on the ground behind us; the old speculations moulder in the surrendered forts; the old dogmas are with the owl and the bats; that is the environment of the dogmatist and the modern revivalist.

"Truly the churches need a revival that will save them. They have killed their Christ in a worse way than the Jewish priests did. It was His body that was impaled on the cross; His mind has been silenced in their creeds. "If the church is to gain dominance over the world," said Mr. Croucher in conclusion, "she must have more reality—a divine baptism of reality, less emphasis on phrases and more vital obedience to the principles of righteousness. It will be wise for us to recall the old prophet's experience, that God was not in the earthquake or the fire, but in the still, small voice, and also the great word of our Master, that the kingdom of heaven cometh not with observation."

RAPS THE RELIGION PROFESSED IN CITY

Dr. Oliver's Low Estimate of Local Names for Book of Life

BIG JOB SAVING SINNERS HERE SAYS SUPPORTER

"Only a small percentage of the people here belong to the church, the great mass being without spiritual hope, and, in all probability, only ten per cent. of the church assembly have their names written in the Book of Life."

This statement of the evident need of residents here to hear and profit by the "message" he has come to deliver was made by the "author-lecturer-evangelist," Dr. French E. Oliver, in a prayer for Victoria's inhabitants at the end of his address given yesterday afternoon in the large wooden Tabernacle specially erected by the Victoria Evangelist movement at the corner of Pandora and Cook Streets.

The building was quite half filled, a considerable number of the audience being children. The seats are plain benches, and the floor is of sawdust and wood chips. At the back of the choir is a big scroll—"Unconditional Surrender to Christ," and other appeals cover the walls. Boxes for "Freewill offerings" are nailed to the posts throughout.

Neglect Their Soul's Beauty.

The proceedings opened with the singing of two hymns by the choir, immediately followed by four more by choir and audience combined, after which the chairman of the committee announced the object of the undertaking which was, he said, to establish a Revival and which he thanked God he believed was now here, to follow the Revival services which had been held in Vancouver three months ago. There was a great mass of people here who did not go to church, neglecting the great beauty of their souls in paying attention to the great beauty of the natural surroundings of the city. He trusted those in the churches would give the movement their support and assistance.

Take Place of Saloons.

Rev. J. G. Inkster, speaking as a ministerial representative on the committee identified with the Movement, said the saloons had closed yesterday and the Tabernacle had opened the next day, and would more than take the place the saloons had occupied in the past. There had been a class of people in the city who were in sympathy with Prohibition, but had only stood and looked on, and there were others who had been in the fight, morning, noon and night, identifying themselves with it to the fullest extent. They wanted this kind of realization for the Evangelistic Campaign, for there were thousands of people in the city to be saved.

Big Job Saving Sinners.

The object of the Movement was first to revive, rouse, and wake up from the sleep of death the Christians in this city, for they needed reviving and, second, to convert the sinners here. He was glad Dr. Oliver had come, for he and those with him would have plenty to do in saving sinners and sanctifying the saved. He did not think Dr. Oliver, or the men or the women with him, were perfect, but they were here to teach the word of God.

Dr. Oliver.

"I have no apology to make for my belief in a Great Savior and a Great God," said Dr. Oliver, and at once requested the congregation to sing "Nearer, My God, to Thee," after which he announced the future programme of the members of the party, all of whom, from his wife and daughter down to the gentleman who had played the piano for him for some years, he individually introduced. Then, as an American, he alluded to the affection of Americans for the Canadians, because of their vigor, energy and quality of not being afraid to do things.

"As associates in the great war struggle, America," said the speaker, "is not going to stand back as a laggard and German rotten 'kultur' and rotten German theology will soon feel the strength of Uncle Sam's strong right arm. In this we are heart and soul with Canada; heart and soul, too, in the still greater work of saving souls."

Join Church for Gain.

Delivering a brief prayer, in the course of which he also mentioned that they had too many ungodly people in the church, men who belong to it in the same way as they would join a lodge or a club, just for business and as a stepping stone to some supremacy or advancement, he then announced his text, which was from Acts, chapter 5, verse 15: "Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and couches that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them."

From the idea evidenced in the latter part of the text he told how shadows revealed the substance back of them; spoke of spiritual and moral shadow life; of its radiation, either for good or bad; and of its influence on others. When set in motion this set up, consciously or unconsciously, a mental machine operated either for good, or as a pestilential influence. This mental machine was a vital fact in existence, for, "as a man thinketh, so is he." Those who thought thoughts of impurity were impure; those of theft were thieves, and those of murder, murderers. On the other hand those who thought nobly would be noble.

Liberals to Meet.—There will be a general meeting of the Victoria Liberal Association in the K. of P. Hall on Thursday next to discuss proposed changes in the constitution.

Is Remanded.—James T. Wagner was released on bail in City Police Court to-day, charged with being drunk in charge of an automobile. No plea has yet been entered, the adjournment being secured by J. S. Brandon on his behalf.

Liberal Ladies.—There will be a meeting of the Women's Liberal Association at the rooms, Arcade Building, to-night for the purpose of discussing Sir Robert Borden's reply to a recent resolution sent by them. The executive will meet at 7 and the general meeting will commence at 8.

County Court Cases.—A considerable number of cases were heard and disposed of, and others adjourned by Judge Lampan in the County Court this morning. Among applicants for naturalization papers was a Japanese steward who had been employed for three years at the Union and, for the last five months, at the Pacific Club.

Seeks for Soldiers.—Seeks intended to reach the trenches by Christmas time should be commenced at once, as there are only a few days before the Christmas shipments will leave. Already the shops have done quite a big business in the sale of socks, and those who buy now will find it easier to select what they want than if the buying is left until later. Khaki wool for socks costs anywhere from $2 to $2.30 per pound, and a pound of wool produces three pairs of socks.

Dance to-morrow Night.—It is to-morrow night that Mrs. George Simpson will give her dance at the Hippodrome to help the Great War Veterans' Club, and a record crowd was expected in view of the great success of the Red Cross dance held recently under the same auspices. An eight-piece orchestra will furnish the music, and refreshments will be provided. The guests of the evening will be the boys from the convalescent hospital at Esquimalt and Reethaven, and everyone else as well as assured of a thoroughly enjoyable evening's entertainment. The proceeds will go to the furnishing of the new club rooms of the Great War Veterans' Association.

Wins Pot of Paint.—The masked and officially known to fair patrons as "Stevenson's Candy Kid," proved as wise as she was mysterious and successfully guessed the weight of the 21-pound tin of white paint which the Nag Paint Company offered as a prize to the person who most nearly computed the weight. The awarding of the prize to so popular a lady as "The Candy Kid" would have been an interesting episode for the last moment of the fair, but, perhaps some of her admirers may still have an opportunity to learn the identity of the lady, as she is requested to call at the Nag Paint Company and claim her prize. There were altogether 3,225 guesses as to the weight of the pot of paint.

The Tissot Pictures.—The Tissot pictures were shown for the last time at the First Presbyterian Church last evening, when Rev. J. G. Inkster preached the last of the illustrated series of sermons on The Life of Jesus. A large number of boys and girls were present at the service. The sermon last night dealt with the episodes in the life of Jesus: "The Tragedy of the Crucifixion," and "The Triumph of Resurrection." While the congregation sang "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," the pictures shown were of the women viewing Calvary, the wounded soldier looking at the comrade in white, and the Saviour on the Cross. Mrs. Hudson, Miss Christie, Mr. Saunders and Mr. Thomas formed an excellent quartette which contributed some very nice numbers to the musical part of the service.

Tenth Annual Convocation.—At the tenth annual convocation of Westminster Hall, held last Friday in Vancouver, Principal Mackay conferred the degree of doctor of divinity on Rev. (Capt.) J. S. Henderson, and the degree of bachelor of divinity on Rev. A. M. O'Donnell, of Trail. William McNeill, chairman of the board of management, expressed his pleasure at being able to state for the board of management that the financial affairs of Westminster Hall were in better shape than for the last five years. Rev. J. K. Unsworth delivered an eloquent address on "The Challenge of the Times to the Christian Church." The Christian Church as a whole, he said, had not been on intimate terms with God for a long time. Activities had taken the place of realities and vitality. The machinery of the church was clanking so loudly that they had not heard the "still small voice."

SEPTEMBER WEATHER

Month Just Closed Average in Respect to Temperature; Below in Rain-fall and Sunshine.

The September weather report, issued by the Meteorological Bureau, Gonzales Heights, shows that the mean temperature for the month just closed was 56 degrees, this being practically the average September temperature for a series of years. The highest temperature was recorded on September 1, being 76 degrees, while the minimum temperature occurred on September 20, when the mercury touched 45.6. The ground thermometer, however, registered nearly ten degrees lower than this on the same date, showing 36.5, the lowest on the grass instrument for the month.

The month just closed was nearly half an inch below the average in respect to rainfall, the total for the four weeks being 1.96 in, against an average of 1.59 for September over a period of several years. The sunshine was also slightly below average. The total recorded was 153 hrs. 42 min., against an average for the month of 174, making a difference of 20 hrs. 12 min.

The forecast of the weather for the Province shows generally fair conditions. The heavy fog over the immediate district of Victoria extends right across the Straits of Juan de Fuca.

ANNUAL MEETING

Members of Victoria and District Branch of Red Cross Society Gather Thursday.

The annual meeting of the Victoria City and District Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society will be held at the ballroom of the Empress Hotel on Thursday, October 4, at 8.30 p.m. At this meeting the report and financial statement for the year ending 31st August last will be presented and discussed, and a general committee will be elected for the ensuing year.

A meeting of the newly-elected general committee will be held immediately after the annual meeting for the purpose of electing officers and executive committee.

All members, workers, subscribers and friends of the Red Cross Society are expected to attend this meeting, and it is hoped that there will be a full attendance.

TWO NEW BARRISTERS

Thos. G. McLellan and Henry M. Jenkins Called to the Bar To-day.

Two new barristers, Thomas Gregor McLellan and Henry Martyn Jenkins, were called to the bar, and the former was also admitted, in the Supreme Court this morning, both gentlemen being presented to the Court in the person of Mr. Justice Gregory by William C. Moresby.

Pure Wool Stockings and Socks are going to be scarce. The Beehive has the best stock of English ones in the city.

Friendly Help.—The Friendly Help Society will hold its regular monthly meeting to-morrow at 10.30 a. m. in the rooms at the Market Building.

Fairfield Red Cross.—The regular monthly meeting of Fairfield Branch Red Cross will take place on Wednesday next at 8 o'clock at the rooms, corner of May and Linden. A full attendance of members is requested.

Earlier Service.—At the evening service at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church and Naval Church, Victoria West, yesterday, the congregation decided to hold the Sunday morning service at 10.30 to accommodate the naval men. The Adult Bible Class will be held as usual at 2.30, but during the evangelistic campaign, the evening service will be at 7 o'clock. The new timetable goes into effect next Sunday. Yesterday was "Rally Day" in the Sunday School. Everything passed off to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Red Cross Workers.—To-morrow afternoon Mrs. Bradshaw, the new convener of the North Ward Branch, will be in the rooms for the purpose of meeting all workers and friends of the Branch. Tea will be served, and it is hoped that many will be present. Mrs. Clarke is in charge of the rooms for the afternoon, and will be ready to give out work to those who will take it. The rooms will be open from 3 to 5. In the evening the rooms will be open as heretofore from 8 to 10.30. Workers who cannot get out during the day. This affords an excellent opportunity to the young people who are employed during the day to do their bit of Red Cross work, and no doubt many will avail themselves of the opportunity. Mrs. Bradshaw, the convener, and Mrs. T. Palmer, who is in charge for the evening, will be pleased to welcome workers both old and new.

Evangelistic Meetings.—Mrs. Frances L. Neth spoke to a full church at St. Paul Presbyterian Church, in Victoria West, yesterday morning, and there were some confessions of Christ in the service. Evangelist Miller, also of the Oliver party, gave a talk at 9.45 a. m. to a full house, at First Presbyterian Church, where many of the young people expressed a desire to begin the Christian life. At 3 p. m. Mr. Miller attended the Sunday School rally at Centennial Methodist, and gave a talk to a crowded house, and was listened to with marked attention. At the close many of the members of the Sunday School asked for the prayers of the people. This week Mrs. Neth will speak to the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church Wednesday at 2.30, and at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Marchant, 1731 Port Street, at 10 a. m. Thursday. Mr. Miller will begin his series of talks on "Character Building" Tuesday in Cloverdale car line at 3.30, continuing until Friday. These talks are put after the school hours, so that all the young people from the public schools may be able to take advantage of them. Coupon tickets are distributed free of charge admitting old and young to all these services. There will be a revival meeting at the Tabernacle to-night at 7.30.

GOVERNMENT STOCK

WILL BE AUCTIONED

Fine Animals at Essondale to Go; Dairy Herds to Be Increased

During the recent visit of Hon. J. D. MacLean to the Colony Farm at Essondale, it was decided that the Clydesdale and Shires would be disposed of, retaining only those necessary for the carrying on of the farm work. It was stated to The Times by the Minister that so far as the horse raising enterprise of the institution was concerned there was no profit on the undertaking. For that reason the sale was determined upon. November 18 has now been decided as the date of sale.

The event will doubtless rank as one of the most important stock sales that has ever been held in Canada, and there is little doubt that breeders and dealers will be attracted from far and near in the Dominion, and also from south of the border. The announcement that the famous stock at the Government farm, horses with international reputation are to be brought under the hammer, must be surprising to horse breeders throughout the country, and from the standpoint of breeding and individuality no greater opportunity has probably ever been presented at one sale.

Dr. J. G. Mackay, the acting medical superintendent of the mental hospitals at New Westminster and Essondale, points out that the Colony Farm has been run in connection with those institutions and their stock population is on the increase. It has been found necessary to increase the dairy herd, and the farm, therefore, cannot carry as many horses in the future.

Cannot Import Now.

Dr. Mackay draws attention to the fact that it is practically impossible to import horses from either Scotland or England to-day, and this feature should be a stimulus to breeders to take advantage of the forthcoming sale for it will be many years, he says, before another such opportunity is presented to the public.

Toucheing on the long pedigree of the stock, Dr. Mackay points out that the sale will offer to the broader, such Clydesdale sires as Welcome Guest and Bowhill Baron, and such mares as Melita, Boquhan Queen, Lady Cedric, Melville, Nancy Edwards and Solway Princess.

"On examining the pedigrees of these animals you will note," he says, "that they represent a combination of breeding that has never before been offered at auction in any part of Canada, and in addition to these imported Clydesdales we have a number of their offspring, as well as two fillies-out of the great Cawdor Cup winner, Nerissa, and a yearling filly from her half-sister, Peggy Pride.

Famous Animals.

"Among the Shires, which were imported in 1913, there are four mares, Bramhope, Emerald Boro, Duchess Sixth, Boro Helness and Forge Heroine, all outstanding individuals of their breed, who have proven their worthiness as brooders and show ring winners in America, at such exhibitions as the Dominion fair at Ottawa, the Toronto exhibition and the International fair, which was held at Ottawa, entered 14 championships, and obtained 13 championships and one reserve, a record which I can safely say has never been duplicated by any one stable."

A catalogue has been printed showing the photographs and extended pedigrees of the animals to be disposed of, numbering 40 head in all.

People Are Their Thoughts.

He dwelt on the importance of realizing that people were nothing more or less than their thoughts, and gave instances of thought influence which, he said, acted similarly to the vibrations from sending and receiving wireless stations. "The way the Devil debauches and degrades a city," said Dr. Oliver, "is to get people thinking foul, unclean thoughts; the way the Devil drags a city down is in licentiousness, bestiality and crookedness is by an appeal to the thinking lives." It was in the same way that God appealed to the thinking machine, said Dr. Oliver, who then went on to speak of thought transference which, he remarked, was a subject once practiced by charlatans, but now fallen into better hands. "There is a segregation in 'likes,' both of foul life and of such men as lawyers, physicians, educationalists, military genius, and ministerial associates engaged in the saving of men—God's people and the Devil's people—and I would not," declared the speaker, "associate with the foul, the unclean and the contemptible infidel." In regard to "likes," he said he was not referring to the affinity of "souls." There were bunches of rascally adulterers all over the world, and there was an affinity that made for righteousness. "Birds of a feather," said the speaker, "flock together."

Spiritual Bankruptcy.

"People who have fallen by the way have fallen into the rut which means spiritual bankruptcy," declared Dr. Oliver. He knew something of science, and he challenged any scientist on the earth to disprove the science of the Bible. There was nothing radically wrong with the doctrine of Jesus, but there was something radically wrong with the human heart, with the vile heart of the degenerate in or out of the church who denied these fundamental truths.

At this point one or two persons left the building, a proceeding which called forth a rebuff for the departed and an admonition for those remaining from relatives.

Riccardo Stracciari

Great Italian Baritone, Makes His American Debut on Columbia Records

His initial offering is that classic baritone solo, the "Largo al Factotum" aria from Rossini's "Barbiere di Siviglia." And never has baritone equaled Stracciari's magnificent rendering of this rollicking air. You will marvel at the new master's sweetness of "tone," his flexible, resonant voice; his marvelous control; his subtle artistry.

"Some people," he continued, "allow their religion to degenerate into an unholiness. That has produced the 'Holy Rollers,' and others. The middle of the road is the place for the sane man and woman, and men and women of Victoria should get close to the Savior. In God's name let them pay the price for the spiritual baptism, which will set the community on fire." Dr. Oliver finished his address with the remark that the committee of this report, after which he urged all workers to obtain a list of names of unconverted friends and relatives.

Milk and Meat Inspection.—At the meeting of the British Columbia Veterinary Association, held at Pen-ticton, in the course of a discussion on the subject of meat and milk inspection it was pointed out how easy it was for the small town to get "stung" with a bad lot of meat. The people who sell meat very seldom offer meat of a questionable nature in places where a regular inspector is employed. It was stated. Such places as Vancouver and Victoria, where Dominion inspectors are on the watch all the time profit by having to pay not a single cent for the protection thus afforded.

Is Greatest of Series; Interest Becomes Keen

Will Be the First Time in History That the Chicago Americans Have Played the Giants; Results of Former Tilts

New York, Oct. 1.—In the long history of world series play for the championship of the baseball universe it is doubtful if any previous contest of this character aroused the widespread interest which has been engendered by the coming clash between the Chicago Americans and the New York Nationals. Although world series play is not new to either of the cities represented by clubs in the finale of the professional baseball year, it will be the first time that New York and Chicago clubs have met for the premier honors of the diamond.

This is all the more remarkable when it is considered that the world series dates back for more than 30 years. The ensuing series will be the twenty-sixth since the Providence club of the National League faced the Metropolitan team of the American Association in the initial contest back in 1884 and emerged victor in three straight games. It will also be the thirteenth play under the code and jurisdiction of the national commission which in 1905 arranged for an annual meeting between the pennant winning clubs of the two major leagues.

Americans Lead.

Of the twelve series under these rules the American League teams have won seven and the National League clubs five. Sixty-six games have been played of which the Americans have won thirty-three and the Nationals thirty-one, with two resulting in tie games. But one run divided the records of the two leagues in this respect, as during these sixty-six games the National League players have crossed the plate 223 times to their rivals' 222.

Another interesting feature of the meeting of the Chicago and New York club is the fact that both may be said to hold charter membership in their respective organizations. The New York team entered the senior baseball circuit on formation in 1876, and finished sixth that season. At the close of the schedule play the combination dropped out and did not return until 1883, from which date its connection with the National League has been continuous. The Chicago White Sox played a prominent part in the forming of the American League in 1900, and has also continuous membership in the junior league since that year.

During this period of eighteen years the White Sox have won four pennants, capturing flags in 1900, 1901, 1906 and 1917. The club has figured in but one world series, however, meeting and defeating the Chicago Nationals by four games to two in 1905. The New York Nationals have a more extensive record in this respect, owing to longer connection with the senior league. Since 1876 the club has won seven league championships and three world series, and its average position for thirty-six seasons is four and a very small fraction. Chicago's showing in this department of the records is even better. The White Sox having gained the high average of 3.4 over a stretch of fourteen years.

Giants Won Often.

Pennants rewarded the work of the New York club players in 1885, 1904, 1905, 1911, 1912, 1913 and again this season. In 1888 the Giants defeated the St. Louis American Association team in the world series of those days, ten games to four, and the following season won from Brooklyn, of the same circuit, six games to one, having refused to meet the Boston Americans the previous year. The Philadelphia

But McGraw refused to part with Honus, for when it comes to baseball brains Honus is a storehouse. He has forgotten more baseball than many a player will ever know.

Was With Phillies.

Loebert was born at Wilmington, Del., in 1882, and drew his first professional baseball engagement at Des Moines in the Western League, away back in 1904. In 1905 he got a tryout with the Cubs, but lacked the necessary polish and was sent to Johnstown, in the Tri-State League. In 1906 he came to Cincinnati via the trade route, being included in the deal between the Cubs and Reds for Steinfield, and from 1906 until the close of 1910 he remained with the Reds. In 1911 he went to Philadelphia in a deal between the Reds and Phillies, engineered by Red Doan. He was with the Phils from that time until McGraw obtained him from Pat Moran.

Though Loebert missed out being a member of the Philadelphia champions, he will be more than repaid this fall as a member of the Giants, for the 1917 world's series—the war notwithstanding—promises to be the greatest in the history of the game.

SEASON CLOSED.

New York, Oct. 1.—The Chicago White Sox, champions of the American League, closed their schedule here today at the Polo Grounds against the New York Yankees. It was planned to play this game as part of a double-header on Saturday, but wet grounds on Friday resulted in arrangements being changed. Saturday the White Sox and Yankees broke even in two games.

JOE BAYLEY STILL LIGHTWEIGHT HERO OF CANADIAN RING

Draw Decision Given at Willows on Saturday; Neff Showed Good Speed

The decision given by Harry Boyd, who acted as third man in the ring at the Joe Bayley-Chet Neff bout at the Willows on Saturday was quite satisfactory to the fans. The fight was clearly a draw and Bayley may still lay undisputed claim to the Canadian title.

Taken as a whole, the fight was one of the best ever seen in the Northwest. Victoria and Seattle fans were unanimous in their opinion that both men set a remarkable speed from start to finish and put up a class of work that was highly commendable. In Joe Bayley the spectators saw a boxer who demonstrated wonderful hardness, while his opponent, Neff, showed the strain of several fights during the early part of the week was fully alive to the possibilities of the game.

An agreement was reached before the boys entered the ring that if each was on his feet at the end of the 10th round the fight would be called a draw. That the contest was a draw was conceded generally by the fans, although Referee Boyd judging the fight on a matter of points would have been inclined to favor Bayley. His summing up of the battle was as follows: First three rounds even; 4th to Neff, 5th to

JOE BAYLEY

Neff, 6th to Bayley, 7th to Neff, 8th to Bayley, 9th to Bayley by a big margin, 10th to Bayley by a shade. On such a marking a decision on points would necessarily have gone to the local boy. The draw arrangement, however, prevented any such decision, and considered on the whole it was just as well. The fighters were entirely different in their style and it would have been a debatable matter in the minds of the great majority of the fans as to whether the local boy was entitled to a decision. The fact that he deserved the draw could not be disputed.

No matter what individual opinion might have been on the question the fight was an excellent one. The speed and staying power of each contestant was excellent. At times Joe showed signs of a lack of consistent training and it is quite possible that if he had been in the best of condition he would have been able to defeat his opponent. Neff, however, gave the fans their money's worth. He is made of true boxing material.

WORLD'S SWIMMING RECORD IS BROKEN BY MISS GALLIGAN

San Francisco, Oct. 1.—A new world's swimming record was set here yesterday when Miss Claire Galligan, of New York, captured the women's national 500-yard championship in 7 minutes 31.2 seconds. This bettered Miss Fannin's time of 7 minutes 32.3 seconds, made at Sydney, Australia, in 1915. Miss Galligan's record was set in a twenty-five-yard tank, while Miss Durack's was a 100-yard course. Miss Galligan finished more than ten yards ahead of Dorothy Burns, of Los Angeles, who took second. Frances Cowell, San Francisco, was third.

Miss Dorothy Burns, of Los Angeles, established what is claimed to be a new world's record for tank swimming, when she defeated Miss Claire Galligan in a 100-yard race. Her time was 3 minutes 1.5 seconds. It was announced. The best previous time for this distance was made March 5, 1916, in Philadelphia, when Olga Dornier, swimming in a twenty-yard tank, covered the distance in 3.054. Miss Burns swam the distance yesterday in a seventy-five-yard tank.

GLADIATORS OF OLD WERE GREAT TRAINERS

Fighters Did Not Spare Themselves When It Came to a Matter of Working

When Tom Cribb defeated Tom Molineaux, the Virginia negro, for the world's championship 166 years ago September, 1811, his triumph was due to the careful training he had received under the direction of Captain Barclay, a famous sportsman and athlete and champion pedestrian. Cribb had defended his title against the American black the previous year, and had won only on a technicality. Molineaux having been the legitimate victor, Barclay was determined that the big title should not go to a foreigner who was also a negro, and he put his man through the most strenuous training imaginable for the second bout. One of the biggest crowds ever assembled around an English prize-ring witnessed the encounter.

Cribb, thanks to his careful preparation, was fit and fine, while the darky was hog-fat. Lacking money and advisers, Molineaux had scarcely trained at all, and just before the fight he ate a whole chicken and a large apple pie washed down with two quarts of ale. In the first few rounds he was easily superior to Cribb in science and generalship, but his poor condition soon left him helpless, and in less than twenty minutes he was stretched out on the turf with a broken jaw. Cribb's training consisted largely of ploughing and other farm work, with long walks of thirty miles a day.

Barclay wrote that when he took charge of Cribb the big bruiser was "corpulent, big-bellied, full of gross humors and short-breathed." For two weeks Barclay dosed him on physic, and permitted him to wander about the countryside with a gun on his shoulder. After that he introduced Cribb to a plough, and made him walk ten miles a day, increasing the distance gradually to twenty or thirty miles. "At this period he commenced to sweat," and thus reduced his weight. For eleven weeks the big fellow was allowed no rest, "but was constantly occupied in some active employment." While Cribb was living this simple and strenuous existence, Molineaux was travelling over England giving exhibitions, eating what he pleased, and drinking all the liquor his admirers would provide.

With adequate training, there was little doubt that Molineaux would have triumphed, and a negro would have become the first real champion of the world.

WITH THE BOXERS

Gunboat Smith will box his first bout in the West Tuesday night, at San Francisco, when he meets Jack Dempsey, the big Salt Lake City heavy-weight.

As a result of his easy win over Bob McAllister last week, and his consistent winnings up to now, Dempsey is regarded as a corner. The big fellow is clever, which most heavyweights are not, and he is liable to surprise the Gunner. The bout will take place in the ball park.

Lloyd Madden, who boxes George Ingle in the main bout of the Elks' Club smoker Tuesday night in Seattle, is back from his Portland go with George Benjamin. Madden surprised the Rose City fans by giving the Portland pride all the battle he wanted. Lloyd says he is in excellent condition, despite his little tilt with Benjamin, and that he is planning on beating Ingle, which is something that very few boys have ever succeeded in doing.

Eddie Campi, who has been showing poorly in his recent bouts in the South, returned to the graces of the fans by defeating Frankie Farren in easy fashion. Campi displayed his old-time form in this bout, and won so far that the referee let him raise his own arm.

Frank Barriera's winning streak has been stopped. The Vancouver boy has been finishing in front in every fight he engaged in for months, but Mick King, the Australian, won the decision over the former Canadian in their contest recently.

Benny Leonard's statement to Bob Edgren just before the match with Leo Johnson the other night in Seattle gives the boxing fans another reason for believing that Benny is a "regular guy." Benny said:

"I never boxed any negro before, but I think that a champion should meet all challengers who have shown sufficient class to be regarded as rivals for his title. I don't think a champion should bar any one, regardless of nationality, race or color. Barring any boxer who might prove to be a better man if given a chance is not sportsmanlike. I've noticed that the colleges have negro athletes on their teams. If it is all right for a white college athlete to compete against a black college athlete I guess it is all right for a white champion to give a black champion a chance in the ring."

"Dixon, Gans and Jeanette were all good enough to fight the best white boxers in their time, and they were a credit to the sport. Black men are good enough to fight for this country in the army. Thinking of that, made me decide to give Leo Johnson a chance to box for the title. If he can beat me I'll take my hat off to him. But I don't expect to let him beat me. That's all."

Benny won by a knockout after a few minutes of boxing.

PICCA BROTHERS ARE FAVORITES WITH FANS

Eddie Hammond Too Clever for the Over-Confident George Corkle

The contests which formed the preliminaries at the boxing tournament held at the Willows on Saturday were all that could be desired. The standard set by the various contestants was high. Clean sport is ever to be desired, and if the boxing game were always subject to the class of work that was demonstrated to the fans at the Horse Show building it would be long before the game would fall into disrepute. The events of Saturday were in striking contrast to the actions of the Holidays' seconds at the bouts held at Duncan on the previous Saturday, when through association with those who fail to recognize the meaning of that honor which accompanies sport, the game was lowered to the level of what might have developed into a free-for-all.

Exhibition Boxing.

Charlie and Harry Picca, who gave the fans four rounds of exhibition boxing deserved every bit of praise which was showered upon them. Their demonstration of clean, neat, yet decisive work was very pleasing and the ability of the crowd to appreciate their efforts was evidenced by the welcome tendered to the contestants. W. H. Davies, who officiated as third man in the ring, gave as his decision a draw, and in fact he could not have done better. Harry, of course, had much the advantage in weight but his brother was the more nimble and avoided many powerful blows. In spite of his lightness he was continually on the spot with repeated volleys of well-directed blows, many of which found their destination much to the annoyance of the man who was the recipient of these tokens. One feature of the contest was the splendid form shown by each boy. From the first sound of the bell until the final gong they maintained a remarkable speed, which would not have been at all possible in fighters not trained to the highest degree.

Knocked Out.

The fight which was billed as the semi-wind up but which did not turn out as fine a contest as that of the Picca boys, was the contest between George Corkle, of Victoria, and Eddie Hammond, of Seattle, for the welter-weight championship of the Northwest. Corkle was knocked to the floor and took the count in the fifth, very much to the enjoyment of the fans. The first round of what was to have been a ten-round show was almost even so far as points went. Corkle was a little aggressive while Hammond appeared to be taking things almost too coolly. This proved to be so, for as the fight advanced Corkle laid himself open on several occasions. All of these opportunities were allowed to pass by Hammond, who appeared to be really indifferent as to what the outcome of the affair might be. He was shoved to the ropes on several occasions, but each time his opponent failed to deliver the finishing cuts. Toward the end of the fourth round Hammond began to show more signs of life and many were the shouts of warning that were flung at the too confident Corkle. These, however, were of little avail, for the fifth had no sooner got well under way than the Seattle boy sent Corkle to the ropes and from there to the floor.

The Kids.

Albie and Jumbo Davies, who opened the card of the day, were the cause of a good deal of amusement for the fans. These sturdy little chaps put up a very creditable exhibition, and if they did not adhere strictly to the rules of the game they at least fought with every ounce of strength in their sturdy little frames. Everyone was highly satisfied when the paternal referee announced the decision to be a draw.

Promoter Davies is to be commended on the show which he offered. The bouts were good and fought in a clean manner from start to finish. If such tactics are consistently adhered to the boxing game will be a future before it in the west.

League Champions Are Defeated by the Rest

The Esquimalt Military Convalescent Hospital, winners of the Second Division Cricket League and The Rest, met of a final fling at the game for the season on Saturday afternoon at Beacon Hill. The Rest proved to be the stronger club and won the day by 25 runs.

Serg. Welsh was the star of the game. His playing with both bat and ball was exceptionally fine; his efforts to bring victory to the team were in vain.

For the Rest, Staff-Serg. Harper did well. He went in first and scored his half century. The bowling of Adams and Donaldson was also greatly to be commended.

CALIFORNIA ELEVEN LOSES ANOTHER ONE

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 1.—The United States marines' football team again defeated the University of California varsity, 36 to 9 yesterday.

Brown, late of Washington State University, was the particular bright star of the game. This heavy and speedy quarter figured repeatedly in thrilling plays that made the occupants of the California rooting section at times forget that he was opposing their own men.

This is the second defeat at the hands of the marines.

FAMOUS OLD COUNTRY ATHLETE IS KILLED

London, Oct. 1.—Lieut. J. M. Bow, of the Canadian force, who was recently killed in action, was a native of Scotland. The late athlete came to Alberta to practice law eight years ago.

He was one of the founders of the Edinburgh Harriers' Club and in 1888 and 1889 formed one of their team representatives in the Scottish cross-country championship. An exceptionally good cyclist, he won the Scottish mile bicycle championship in 1888, and in the eighties was an officer of the Queen's Edinburgh Volunteers.

Winnipeg, Oct. 1.—Lieut. Erwin J. Smith, of Vancouver, reached his home recently. He with a number of coast officers have had quick passage from England. Smith was wounded at Vimy Ridge when high explosive shell burst beside him in front-line trench. It blew him over the top, burying him in the debris. He was badly cut up.

Lieut. Smith left with the 172nd of Kamloops just one year ago. He is an ex-captain of Vancouver High School cadets and a rugby star of a few years ago.

RUN UP A SCORE OF 179 POINTS IN GAME

Down in Oklahoma the University of Oklahoma lost no time in starting the football season. Playing the Kingfisher college, the state team ran up a score of 179 points against their opponents. To score 179 points the Oklahoma aggregation could have made twenty-three touchdowns, kicked all their goals and booted six drop kicks just for good measure. The contest was played in Norman, Okla., and will set a mark for high scoring which will make the rest of the teams of the country work hard to beat.

WHO'S WHO IN THE WORLD'S BASEBALL

Loebert is the Cheer Dispenser; is Entitled to Much Credit for Fighting Spirit

The Giants would not be the same club without Hans Loebert on the coaching-liaison.

The veteran infielder of the Reds and Phillies, who, winding up his major league career with the New York Club, is the official cheer dispenser, coach and all-round utility man. He is McGraw's first lieutenant, and he is entitled to much credit for keeping up the fighting spirit of the club, for veteran that he is, John Loebert's brand of support is as contagious as the mumps.

Nine Years of Service.

Three years ago Loebert came to the Giants from Philadelphia in a deal which included Al Demaree. At that time he had seen nine years of service on the major league lots, but he held down the hot corner for McGraw in 46 games. Last year he played but 48 games at third-base, and this spring, when the club went to Marlin for training, the veteran Loebert was counted out as a useful player, but his legs gave way and the old batting eye was dim.

To Find Your Buyer, Make It Easy for Your Buyer to Find You!

YOU HAVE PROPERTY TO SELL. You know that somewhere in the city is a man to whom that property would appeal strongly. Perhaps there are many such men—but in the group of "possible buyers" for your property there is ONE MAN to whom it would be especially valuable. To this man it would represent the successful end of his search. It is what he wants, what he needs, what he is going to keep on looking for until he finds it.

If you knew who this man is you could make a prompt sale of your property. But you don't know him. You have no clue. So far as you are concerned he is lost in the crowd. There is one chance in a million that he may happen to find out about your property through somebody else. It is too long a chance. YOU MUST FIND HIM.

He reads the real estate advertisements—of that you may be sure. He may have read an advertisement of YOUR PROPERTY—but failed to have identified it as WHAT HE IS LOOKING FOR through your own failure to describe it adequately.

You can find him by making it easy for him to find you: It will not be easy for him to find you unless you tell him all about your property—answer, in your advertisement, all of his probable questions about it. If you do that, in your advertisement, you will find yourself in DIRECT COMMUNICATION WITH HIM.

WOMAN NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH

What Came From Reading a Pinkham Advertisement.

Paterson, N. J.—"I thank you for the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies as they have made me well and healthy. Some time ago I felt so run down, had pains in my back and side, was very irregular, tired, nervous, had such bad dreams, did not feel like eating and had short breath. I read your advertisement in the newspapers and decided to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It worked from the first bottle, so I took a second and a third, also a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and now I am just as well as any other woman. I advise every woman, single or married, who is troubled with any of the above-said ailments, to try your wonderful Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and I am sure they will help her to get rid of her troubles as they did me."

Mrs. ELSIE J. VAN DER SANDE, 36 No. York St., Paterson, N. J.

GERMAN OFFICERS ARE HANGING BACK

Seldom Lead Men in Hand-to-Hand Fighting, Says Canadian Correspondent

Canadian Headquarters in France, Oct. 1.—(By Canadian Overseas Correspondent).—That the rank and file of the enemy troops have a great longing after peace is confirmed by every prisoner captured. One of their chief grievances is the failure of their higher officers to take risks. Even company commanders freely dispute to the trenches, and remain well back from the front. This is so different from the relations between our officers and men that it is freshly impressed on the minds of the Germans on every occasion when there is hand-to-hand fighting, in which our officers invariably lead their men, while the German officers seldom do so. They are not actuated by fear and it must be assumed that they are obeying orders in this hanging back.

The very great losses of the German officer class early in the war may have made it necessary to conserve their leaders. Whatever is the reason for their failure to take risks as great as those to which their men are subjected, the latter are deeply discontented. Hence the hearty greetings from Lens.

KILLED IN ACTION.

Montreal, Oct. 1.—Lieut. D. J. Barker, formerly assistant to the general manager of the Bank of Montreal, was killed in action yesterday. A private cablegram received here today conveyed this information.

GASPARRI WRITES ABOUT POPE'S NOTE

Paris Newspaper Publishes Letter From Papal Secretary of State

Paris, Oct. 1.—The Eclair publishes a letter from Cardinal Gasparri, the Papal Secretary of State, to Bishop de Giberques, of Valenciennes, concerning the reception accorded the Papal peace note, in which the Papal Secretary expresses the satisfaction of Pope Benedict at the sentiments of the Roman Catholic clergy of France, which, the letter says, "is all the more agreeable to His Holiness since the contrary attitude of the French press in general is inexplicable. If there are nations specially favored in the Papal note the letter, which is dated September 10, remarks that France certainly can not take exception to the first two parts of the Papal note concerning disarmament and obligatory arbitration, and continues:

"As to the damages to be replaced and the outlays of the war, the Holy Father proposes in the third place a general principle, reciprocal remission. He adds, however, that if in any case particular reasons are opposed to that view, which is verified in the case of Belgium, they can be weighed with justice and equity."

The letter then refers to the statement of former Premier Ribot that he is in accord with the Provisional Government of Russia, admitting that in eventual peace negotiations war indemnities should not be claimed but reserving for France the right to require reparation for damages suffered by the "malevolence caused by the military commanders outside the necessity of war."

General Terms.

The letter adds that the Pontifical note was couched in general terms and did not exclude reparation for such damages caused needlessly by the fault of military commanders. It is for France to judge if it is suitable for it, even in the hypothesis of victory, to prolong the war, were it only for one year, to require of the enemy reparation for these damages with due account taken of the losses in money and men and the heaps of ruins in which the war would leave Belgium and French territory now occupied. Cardinal Gasparri's letter lays stress upon the fact that the Papal note desires that French territory be immediately evacuated by the Germans completely. It then says that the Pope does not and could not propose any solution concerning Alsace-Lorraine and adds that he expresses the hope that France and Germany will examine in a conciliatory spirit the aspirations of the peoples, taking into account what is just and possible.

Finally the letter contends that the Pope's note favors France in different points and offends it in none.

MORE WHEAT PRICES SET BY SUPERVISORS; SEVERAL GRADES

Winnipeg, Oct. 1.—The Board of Grain Supervisors for Canada has ordered that the prices on the following grades of wheat shall be as follows from October, 1917, to August 31, 1918, inclusive:

Rejected-1 Northern, $2.11; rejected 2 Northern, $2.04; rejected 3 Northern, $2.03; smutty 4 Northern, $2.12; smutty 2 Northern, $2.09; smutty 3 Northern, $2.09.

From October 1, 1917, to April 30, 1918, inclusive: No-grade tough 1 Northern, $2.15; No-grade tough 2 Northern, $2.12; No-grade tough 3 Northern, $2.07.

These prices are based for wheat in store in the public terminal elevators at Fort William and Port Arthur.

PLOT AGAINST REGINA PARLIAMENT BLOCK

Believed Conversation Overheard in Hospital Referred to That Structure

Regina, Oct. 1.—What is believed to be a plot to blow up the Parliament Buildings here came to light today when the police received a telephone message from the superintendent of the general hospital to send a police officer to the hospital.

Detective Sergeant Hayes was sent to the hospital and was told that yesterday afternoon one of the patients had overheard the plot discussed by the woman in the bed next to her with three or four persons who had come to see her.

The woman who overheard the plot understands the German language and her bed is next to that of another woman who is believed to be of Serbian extraction, and who is a patient in the hospital suffering from tuberculosis. Fastening intently, this woman, from the trend of the conversation, understood that a plot was on foot to blow up a large building in Regina. She did not obtain sufficient information as to just what building was threatened, learning only of a large building of grey-stone construction. At first she thought the building threatened was the city hall, but as that building is of red brick, she was convinced that the building under discussion was the Parliament Buildings.

As soon as possible she communicated what she had heard to the hospital authorities, who immediately notified the city police.

ELEVATOR WORKERS AT HEAD OF LAKES ARE OUT ON STRIKE

Fort William, Ont., Oct. 1.—Practically all four elevator companies here are out on strike. The monthly men still are working with few exceptions. The Ogilvie and Thunder Bay elevators are the only public terminals unloading cars. Loading into boats still is proceeding. About 300 men did not report for work today in the two harbors. The strikers have pickets out to prevent non-union labor offering for work. The elevator operators held a meeting at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

EXPECTED TO JOIN COLORS FORTY-FIVE DAYS AFTER CALLED

Winnipeg, Oct. 1.—It is stated here that 20 days after the draft proclamation the tribunals will start to sit and will complete their work in 25 days, when the lists will be ready to hand over to the military authorities. Consequently 45 days after the proclamation draft men may be expected to be called to the colors.

MICHAELIS CAUSED A RIOT IN ESSEN; TROOPS WERE USED

London, Oct. 1.—A demonstration against the German Government on Saturday at Essen, home of the Krupp works, in consequence of the decision of Chancellor Michaelis not to state Germany's peace terms in an exchange of telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam. Women formed a majority of the demonstrators, says the dispatch, breaking windows of the town hall and shouting demands for more food, for peace and for the return of their menfolk. The police and military were called out to quell the riot. Two women were injured and several were arrested. The whole of Essen is reported to be in a state of ferment.

2,019 CAPTURED BY ITALIANS IN THREE DAYS, ROME STATES

Rome, Oct. 1.—In their offensive operations of the past three days General Cadorna's troops have taken 2,019 prisoners, the War Office here announced today. Further Austrian attacks upon the Italian lines on the Bainsizza plateau which were pushed forward in the recent attacks were completely repulsed.

RECLAMATION SCHEME DISCUSSED AT CRESTON

Penticton, Oct. 1.—The second session of the convention at Creston in connection with the proposed Kootenay Valley reclamation scheme was held on Saturday afternoon. A large number of delegates from Idaho, including Senator Walker and State Land Appraiser Parker, was in attendance. Idaho being largely interested in the scheme, Senator Walker, Mr. Parker and others outlined the attitude of the United States Government and the State of Idaho in regard to the scheme and said they were heart and soul in the project and looked to the Canadian Government for its support and co-operation.

Hon. John Oliver and Hon. T. D. Pattullo defined the position of the British Columbia Government in regard to the scheme. Mr. Oliver said the scheme was a nebulous one in its present form and asked for more data. He favored it provided it was feasible and the results to be obtained were commensurate with the money to be expended. He pointed out that any proposed scheme would have to be ratified by the Legislature.

Engineers from both sides of the line will meet at Nelson on October 2, to discuss the matter from an engineering standpoint. The project involves some $4,000,000.

BRITISH CABINET INCREASES PAY IN THE ARMY AND NAVY

London, Oct. 1.—The Cabinet has increased the army and navy pay, although the increases are small, compared with rates of the Overseas Dominions and the American schedule. Proficiency pay at the rate of from three to six pence a day will be paid after six months' service, instead of two years, as under the present army rule. There also is an increase of a penny a day for each year of war service. The present compulsory allotment of six pence for privates and ten pence for sergeants daily is abolished.

LESS BUT BETTER BREAD SOON TO BE ALLOWED IN FRANCE

Paris, Oct. 1.—Maurice E. Long, the new Minister of Provisions, whose appointment was announced in the Chamber Saturday, states that the programme of two meatless days a week will be abandoned October 15, as the economy resulting therefrom has been insignificant. Bread cards will be instituted.

The bread cards, according to the Minister, will be employed as an aid in deciding the amount of breadstuffs needed. His aim is to give a better quality and a diminished quantity.

NON-SLAV CONGRESS PASSED RESOLUTION AT KIEV MEETING

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—The congress of non-Slav nationalities at its final session at Kiev passed a resolution declaring that Russia must be a federal democracy. Every nationality comprising the population of Russia, including the Cossacks, the resolution says, must be granted a large measure of autonomy, the basis of which should be laid down by a constitutional assembly especially convoked by each nationality.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs, it adds, should immediately establish a special committee comprising representatives of every nationality in Russia to prepare to defend the national interests of the empire. The committee of nationalities to this end. The committee appointed to investigate steel conditions in Canada in view of the establishment of a licensing system in the United States, is expected to report in about 10 days.

GERMAN AGENTS ON AMERICAN VESSELS TO BETRAY THEM

New York, Oct. 1.—Newspapers here today publish the following dispatch from Washington: "Agents of the German Government, posing as neutrals, have been placed on board American merchant vessels for the purpose of betraying them in the submarine zone, according to unofficial reports here. These agents are said to use small wireless telegraph sets which flash signals from periscopes to warn submarines of the approach of vessels. Those who are employed as stokers feed the fires in such a manner that a long trail of heavy smoke hangs behind the ship for some distance and makes her easy to be seen by the crew of the undersea boats."

"Naval officials claim that the danger from these men is due to the system of hiring crews for merchant vessels, which is the same today as it was in time of peace. They declare themselves in favor of a plan which would provide for the manning of such ships by men of the naval reserve force, who are necessarily loyal Americans."

FURTHER DETAILS OF BOLO PASHA'S INTRIGUE

Paris, Oct. 1.—Bolo Pasha, charged with having relations with the enemy, according to The Matin, met Abbas Hilmi, former Khedive of Egypt, in Zurich, former Khedive of Egypt, in an arrangement which was approved by Gottlieb von Jagow, then German Foreign Minister, and under which 10,000,000 marks would be paid in instalments to Bolo through the former Khedive for the purpose of influencing the French press. In accordance with this arrangement 4,000,000 marks was paid by round-about methods through Swiss banks, to avert suspicion. Abbas Hilmi and an associate are said to have collected 200,000 francs as a commission.

London, Ont., Oct. 1.—Roy Gwyer, aged 36, who was run down by a yard engine of the Grand Trunk Railway, died last night.

PREPARE FOR POLLING LAST MONTH OF 1917

Preparations Being Rushed at Ottawa; Borden Back in Capital

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—With the return of the Prime Minister to Ottawa this morning, there opens a week of political activity. The parliamentary term expires at the end of the week, but there is little likelihood of Parliament running its full extended period of six years. Dissolution is to be one of the first subjects taken up by the Government. After that the country will be in the swing of a party campaign. It is likely that Sir Robert Borden will make a tour through the west, although nothing definite in this regard has yet been decided.

Preparations for the election are being rushed with a view to having election day in December. More than 15,000 enumerators remain to be appointed for the revision of the lists, with an assistant clerk of the crown in chambers, scrutineers and returning officers in connection with the military votes to be taken overseas.

There also are nine Senators from the west and one from Ontario to be appointed after dissolution. A number of judgeships also remain to be filled. For the western Senators, the names mentioned are Dr. Schaffner, M. P., George Bradbury, M. P., both for Manitoba; Lt.-Col. J. D. Taylor, M.P., and Dr. McGuire, of Vancouver, for British Columbia. The names also are mentioned of W. B. Willoughby, Conservative leader in Saskatchewan, and Edward Michener, Conservative leader in Alberta.

The visit of Lord Reading and Lord Northcliffe to Ottawa this week will bring to the fore the financial situation. Ways and means will be discussed of utilizing to the full Canadian resources and possibilities here with respect to an accelerated shipbuilding programme. Recognizing that shipbuilding is a war purpose, the United States is permitting the exportation of steel plates to this end. The committee appointed to investigate steel conditions in Canada in view of the establishment of a licensing system in the United States, is expected to report in about 10 days.

SOLDIERS IN TROUBLE.

Prince Albert, Sask., Oct. 1.—The Regina soldiers are in trouble here. Pte. Peter Shouvie pleaded guilty in Police Court today to the theft of a bicycle. He is to be sentenced on Friday. He has no pass and it is presumed he is a deserter. Pte. J. Stanley also was charged with the theft of a bicycle, pleaded not guilty and was remanded. The police are communicating with the Regina military authorities.

IN HEAT OF DISPUTE.

Calgary, Oct. 1.—William H. Hopkins, of Drumheller, at one time secretary of the miners' union here, was dismissed on a charge of sedition before Mr. Justice Simmons in the Criminal Court here this forenoon. Hopkins was alleged to have made derogatory remarks about the Government and about soldiers at the front. It was shown that he had spoken in the heat of a dispute, and in view of that fact the Judge dismissed the case.

FINANCIAL NEWS

MONTREAL STOCKS

(By Burdick Bros. & Brett, Ltd.)
Montreal, Oct. 1.—The local market started at a little higher level, but during the day's trading, net changes for the day, however, were unimportant. The attention of local traders is centered largely in the action of the American market and to-day's operations in that market were rather confusing. There was no important market news over the week-end. Money was said to be somewhat easier and offerings more liberal. War Loan bonds dull at Saturday's levels.

TO-DAY'S TRADING ON THE WINNIPEG MARKET

Winnipeg, Oct. 1.—There was little doing in the cash wheat market here today. Further fixing of prices took place today, rejected and smutty Northern being fixed from October 1, 1917, to August 31, 1918, inclusive, and no-grade tough Northern being fixed from October 1, 1917, to April 30, 1918, inclusive.

There was a good demand for No. 3 C. W., extra 1 feed and No. 1 feed cash oats early in the session, but later this dropped off. A total of 413,000 bushels of oats was placed against the futures to-day.

The demand for cash barley was steady with light offerings.

In the cash flax the trade was quiet. No. 1 N. W. C. was 2 cents over the futures.

Oats closed 1 to 1 1/2 cents higher for October and November; December and May were unchanged. October barley was down two cents and flax just slumped.

After opening 4 to 5 cents down, closed 7 1/2 cents down for October, 8 cents down for November and 7 1/2 cents down for December. Beyond a few hedging sales and sympathy with Duluth, there seemed nothing to explain a drop of such magnitude.

Cash prices: Wheat—No. 1 Nor., 21; No. 2 Nor., 20; No. 3 Nor., 20; No. 4 Nor., 19; No. 5 Nor., 18; feed, 17 1/2.

EXPAND FACILITIES FOR HOSPITAL CASES

Dr. Alfred Thompson, M. P., is Here on Duties of Military
Hospitals Commission

Dr. Alfred Thompson, M. P., Medical Superintendent of the Military Convalescent Hospitals, arrived in the city yesterday on an inspection tour of the hospitals on the island.

Speaking of the development of the work he said to The Times this morning: "The last hospital ship to arrive on the Atlantic Coast brought 50 officers, 4 nursing sisters, 208 tubercular soldiers, 65 insane, and 447 other cases, 774 in all. About half the cases go through to the province of Ontario, which supplied so large a percentage of the Canadian Army. The percentage of insane and tubercular cases in the above list is above the average on a hospital ship. We are receiving increases at the rate of from 750 to 1,000 per week. We have now about 10,000 cases in the hospitals throughout Canada, and we have accommodation for 5,000 more. We are continually adding to the accommodation in order to have space for additions in advance of requirements. The battles around Lens having increased the casualties among Canadians have necessarily created a corresponding demand on our resources. Our work is now organized from coast to coast, and it is easier to take care of 1,000 more now than it was for 10 additional cases 15 months ago.

"The hospital organization for our returned invalids is composed of the following links: Hospital ships on the North Atlantic; debarkation hospitals at St. John, Halifax, and Quebec; hospital trains in connection with the port hospitals; convalescent hospitals at convenient points across the continent; active treatment hospitals situated at strategic points, chiefly large cities; sanatoria for tubercular cases from Charlottetown to Kamloops; hospitals for rheumatic cases for incurables for the special treatment of nerve and orthopedic cases—of these we have 450 in one hospital in Toronto. We have an artificial limb factory making our own artificial arms and legs. Altogether we have in operation about 60 institutions. Concurrently with medical and surgical treatment we are carrying on thermo, hydro, electric and physio, therapeutics and vocational training.

"The whole object has for its purpose retraining the soldiers for civilian life so that each man may find some useful place somewhere in our economic and social fabric and be enabled to earn his own living and therefore not be dependent upon friends, the community or the state.

The doctor will leave again this evening for the Mainland.

VENDOR'S STORE HAS QUIET MORNING WITH ABSENCE OF BUSINESS

Very Small Stock on Hand
Will Take Care of All
Trade Yet

COMMISSIONER HAS BUT ONE SINGLE QUERY TO-DAY

The Government Dispensary for the sale of the prescribed varieties of liquor under the provisions of the British Columbia Prohibition Act opened at 2 o'clock this morning with a stock that would have lasted about five minutes had it been on the shelves of either one of the retail establishments about closing time on Saturday night. The stock acquired by Prohibition Commissioner Findlay for the local vendor's establishment has not yet all been delivered, and when the complete consignment reaches the dispensary it will be a very small stock.

That it will be quite sufficient to meet all needs, however, for some time to come is emphasized by the fact that up till 2 o'clock this afternoon not a single inquiry from the "privileged few" had reached the establishment. Vendor Horne, Victoria's official retailer, is finding his position a vastly different one from that of his calling of "the old days" which came to an end with the stroke of 10 on Saturday night.

Don't Get Caught.
The Times foreshadowed in these columns last week that one of the first inquiries to reach the Prohibition Commissioner on October 1 would be concerning the removal of liquor from the retail store either to the warehouse so prescribed in the Act or to a private dwelling house, after September 30. That assuredly was the query this morning and strangely enough it was the only one.

The latter fact alone is interpreted by the Commissioner as evidence that the legislation is correctly understood by the people and by those more directly concerned in its enforcement. With the tone inquiry this morning Mr. Findlay was of course not inclined to be caught napping. He insisted that the Government first and foremost intended to see that the Act was enforced in its true spirit and intent.

Municipal Responsibility.
As far as its enforcement is concerned, it must be remembered, the Commissioner points out, that a large measure of responsibility rests on the shoulders of the municipal authorities. Section 29 of the Act says that the duty of seeing that the provisions of the Act are complied with and of enforcing the same and of prosecuting persons offending shall devolve upon the Superintendent and upon all constables and officers of every provincial and every municipal police force of the province.

Cheap Brandy.
Relative to the query addressed to the Commissioner this morning it would appear that any liquor found on premises other than the prescribed warehouse or in the prescribed private dwelling house would be liable to seizure and the owner or licensee of such be charged with an infraction of the provisions of the British Columbia Prohibition Act.

Big Price.
One of the side lights of the rush to purchase liquor of the higher grades on Friday and Saturday night last will be doubtless a pang of regret to many this morning. That is to say, Martell's Three-Star Brandy easily fetched four dollars a bottle both in Victoria and Vancouver on the latter days of last week, while the figure quoted in Montreal this morning for the same beverage is twenty-four dollars a case, or two dollars a bottle, delivered almost anywhere in the Dominion of Canada.

The Government liquor store in Vancouver, under the direction of H. A. Urquhart, assisted by Rev. W. Ross, failed to open for business this morning. No stock has yet been installed and carpenters are still busy preparing the premises for the reception of the spirits and wine that will be kept for the benefit of the sick or for sacramental purposes.

For War Bonds.—At a meeting of the Victoria Barbers' Union held recently, that body decided to put all the available funds which could be spared into Canadian Government war bonds.

Do You Realize How Much Your Appearance Will Be Enhanced if Your Teeth Are Sound, Clean and Healthy?

A BEAUTIFUL MOUTH—clean, wholesome, regular in shape—with white, firm, useful teeth—no man or woman could have a more valuable asset than this. And it is this priceless asset that I am able to provide for you, and do it at a cost out of all proportion to the service, satisfaction and health you will derive from my work.

The artificial teeth I supply are absolutely natural in size, shape, color and function. Furthermore, the scientific, careful manner in which they are placed in your mouth guarantee that you will have a decade of immunity from trouble with your teeth. It guarantees that the contour of your face will retain its youthful mould and that your health and efficiency will remain unimpaired.

TEACHER IS CHARGED WITH USING TRICKERY

Friendship Terminated in a Loan Which is Not Yet
Repaid

Magistrate Jay indicated that he would take till Wednesday morning to consider the peculiar case of Ethel Richards, before him this morning on a charge of obtaining money by false pretences.

During a convention of teachers in the summer of 1915 Miss Richards made her appearance in Victoria, having come down from the mainland. Mrs. W. A. Hurley introduced her to Mrs. Keen, wife of W. J. Keen, the North Park Street baker. Mrs. Keen called at the house and borrowed $15, for which Mr. Keen gave a cheque on the Royal Bank, on the plea that she must return at once and had not the money to go back. Mrs. Keen stated that she was astonished in view of the fact that Miss Richards had stayed at a well-known hotel. However, she persuaded her husband to write out the cheque. Since that time they had seen the accused on the street from time to time and asked for the money back but had only received $1 on account.

The defendant made a statement that she was formerly in possession of a provisional certificate from the Department of Education in 1913-14, during which time she taught at the North Thompson West School, but the certificate was not renewed and in February, 1915, she received an engagement at the Coqualeetza Indian School, at Sardis, which she left in June. After that she negotiated to get a transfer to another school under the Indian Department, but failing that had been teaching privately here. She denied that teacher all her life. She said that she obtained the money by a trick, but while acknowledging the debt she said she had been unable to pay it back.

On her behalf it was submitted that the case was one for the Small Debts Court.

SOAP GUESSING CONTEST

Complete List of Winners as Certified by Mayor Todd.

The weights in the soap-guessing contest at the Fair were, respectively, the following pounds: 29, 25 1-2, 26 1-2, 21 3-4, 16 3-4, 15 1-4, 14 1-4, 14 1-2, 13 3-4, 12 1-4, 10 and 9 3-4, making a total weight of 299 1-4, the weights being certified as to correctness by Mayor Todd. In all, there were over 2,500 attempts.

The winners are: Mrs. Downards, 144 Pembroke Street, whose guess was 267.9 oz., and H. M. Spence, 925 Esquimalt Road, with the same guess, and these two have the first and second prizes divided between them. Third and fourth prizes are also divided, James Webster, of the Empress Hotel, and Mrs. Jewell, of 435 Simcoe Street, both guessing 208.14.

Fifth prize goes to F. R. Savage, 1440 Clifford Street, with estimate of 208.12, and sixth to M. Grimmer, of Mount Douglas Apartments. The seventh to twelfth prize winners will each receive five pounds of soap. These winners are:

Mrs. F. Parsons, 563 Manchester Road, with 208.8 oz., and the following, who all guessed 210 lbs.: A. McKenzie, 2730 Forbes St.; A. McLean, 145 Medina St.; A. Watson, 3070 Albany Road; Mrs. E. Scoplen, 1040 Suttie St.; F. W. Watt, Lake Bunton, B. C.; K. Cooper, 2249 Quadra St.; Mrs. James Murphy, 1809 Crescent Road; Mrs. Sabiston, 1315 George St.; H. LOCAL MAN WOUNDED

Son of Mrs. Hitchcock, of Robertson Street, is Reported Among Casualties.

Mrs. Hitchcock, of 162 Robertson Street, Fowl Bay, has received word from Ottawa that her son who left this city with the 67th Battalion has been wounded. The telegram was very brief, merely stating that some of the ribs had been affected, and that further particulars would follow in the course of a day or two.

service. On reaching England he was transferred to the 54th Kootenay Battalion, and was serving with that force when he received his injuries, on September 24.

Mr. Hitchcock is thirty-eight years of age.

The first International Conference of Working Men was held in London during the last week of September, 1865. The Conference—which gave rise to the term "The International"—was the work mainly of Cremer and Odger, Germany, with France, Poland, Switzerland and Italy, sent her working men to be represented on the International. Germany's corresponding secretary was none other than the famous Karl Marx. One of the survivors of the first Conference is Mr. Robert Applegarth, but it is not likely he will go to Stockholm, though he was present at the recent London Conference.—London Chronicle.
